Celebrating Newspapers in Education Week

Newspapers in Education is a nationwide system of cooperation between newspapers and schools.

According to a Newspaper Association of America Foundation report, NIE helps students improve standardized test scores when newspaper content is used in the classroom and at home on a regular basis.

Junior Journal is a showcase for students' writing and artwork produced in honor of Newspapers in Education Week. Students submitted stories, photos and drawings on the following topics:

- What makes a good friend
- My favorite TV show

Staff members at the Daily Journal selected the winning entries, taking into account overall quality, creativity and insight for the grade level.

First-place winners won $50, second place earned $25 and third place $15.

Students also designed advertisements for various businesses. Participating businesses chose one ad to be published in the Junior Journal.

The Daily Journal advertising staff chose three winners from among the ads that are published in this magazine.

First place won $50, while second place earned $25 and third place $15.

The winners, along with the page their work can be found on, are listed below.

How to be a Good Friend
By Destin Whitehead

In this you will learn what makes a good friend. First, a good friend encourages you. Let's say you are about to go up and perform in a play. Your friend should say, "You got this!" or "Hope you break a leg." Now that's something that should encourage you. Another good thing they could say is, "I hope you win". Next, be nice. For example, a friend would be nice and give you a gift or help you with something you need. Sometimes a good friend can be rude, so make sure you can be nice more than you are rude. Now, a good friend is someone you trust. For example, let's say you tell a friend an embarrassing story and tell you to not tell anybody. If they go around and tell others that embarrassing story you probably won't have trust for them. They're most likely to be mad or upset. So never tell an embarrassing story to others. Go and be a good friend to your own friends and others.

How to be a Good Friend
By Robert Wagaman

To be a good friend you need to follow some of these rules. So to be a good friend you need to be kind. For example, be loyal to them. If they are a kind and loving person to you, you should just love them back the same way they love you. Hang out with your friend. For example, be nice and play with him or her at recess and maybe invite them over some day. Be kind. Be a bucket filler not a bucket dipper. For example, don't be mean and rude to them, be nice to them or they might not want to be friends with you any longer. Don't leave them by themselves. For example, if your friend asks to play with you when you want to play with someone else, ask them if they want to play too. Get them a gift and they might give you a gift back. For example, ask them what they like, maybe get them that for their birthday. You could invite them to your party, they'll like it, and you guys will have fun. Maybe hang out after school. For example, maybe you guys can go get dinner together.

Friends Should Have These Traits
By Micah Silverman

A good friend is a person who is respectful and loyal. They are someone who isn't competitive and doesn't size up others. He or she should always laugh at other friends' jokes even if it isn't funny. Friends also don't laugh at each other and don't make fun of each other. Friends should provide comfort and respect to others. They should be kind and nice to everyone, including those who are disagreeable. Friends are positive and aren't negative. Friends are always there for each other. A friend is honest and always tells the truth. They are trustworthy. When you tell them a secret, they will not tell it. You can always count on a friend.

What Are Good Friend Qualities?
By Isaiah Silverman

Friendships are a good way to have a happy, healthy life. A good friend isn't truly mad with you, and will forgive you if you forgive them. If your friend laughs or makes fun of you, then they aren't truly your friend. If a friend makes you insecure, or unwelcomed, they aren't your friend. The most important thing for a friendship is having a good time together. Try to see the best in each other, not the worst. Friends can see when you're upset, and try to do something about it. Friends have each other's back. A friend will do something for you even if they don't want to do it. They do it to make you feel happy. A true friend lasts for life ..

What makes a great friend
By Oliver Schmidt
What do you think makes a great friend? Someone that likes some of the things you like. For example, if you like the same sport, or you like the same video games, you could become friends. A great friend is someone you trust and someone who trusts you. A friend is a person who is nice to you and is someone who is loyal to you. A friend is someone who inspires you. A friend is a person who stands up for you. A friend is a person who is honest, and who doesn't lie to you.

A Good Friend
By Braxton Richardson
You might ask, "What makes a good friend?" This is what I would tell you. A good friend is someone who is nice to you and is always by your side. They are somebody who looks out for you and helps you when you are going through tough times. For example, when my dog tried to run away my friends helped me feel better. It is a person that makes you laugh and enjoy spending time with. For example, someone you always want to talk or play with. Someone who has the same interests in the things you do. For example I like basketball and so do my friends. A person who is loyal. Those qualities make good friends.

A Good Friend
By Sierra Kruger
This is what makes a good friend to stick with through your life. A good friend would be someone that cares about you, and never leaves you when you get hurt. This person is someone that is loyal and encourages you to do what you want. They are people who stand up for you when someone's bullying you or making fun of you. These people are always helping you and always supporting you for being you. For example, my friend Molly Cummings is a good friend to me because she always supports me and cheers me up when I am feeling down. Once I had to have surgery and she and my whole class sent me cards. The things that she sends me always make me feel better than I was before.

What Makes A Good Friend
By Berkley Klika
A good friend has these traits, trust, loyalty and inspiration. First, you have to be able to trust your friend and believe in them. I have a friend named Lilly Chumbley, she is an example of a trustworthy friend. Our families are really close. Another word to describe the word friendship is loyalty. My friend Maddie Alvey describes the word loyalty to me. Our friendship is really strong. I feel like I could tell her my deepest darkest secret and I could trust that she wouldn't tell anyone. She once told me, "Be the change you wish to see in the world." What that means to me is the change you want to see in other people, so let it start with you. Another word for

Being a Buddy

By Austin Kinnett

What do you think makes a good friend? Good friends are kind and loyal to each other. They also don't fight a lot, but when they do it shouldn't last long, especially if you're great friends. Excellent friends are also good role models for little kids. Little kids should want to be great friends, just like their role models. Nice friends will step in and not let bullies be mean to other kids. Bullies are mean and good friends will not let them be mean any more to their targets. I hope this passage has helped you understand that being a buddy is an excellent thing to do.

Friend

By Marley Hagist

How to be a good friend. Be funny. People like it if you are funny. Just tell a joke. One time I told a joke to my friends and they loved it. Be loyal. If you ever lie to your friends and they found out I do not think that they would be very happy about that.

So, be loyal not just to your friends, but to everyone. Make sure you and your friends are kind to themselves and others, so no bullying. A good friend is someone who cares about you and does things for you, like cleaning your mess up. Get stuff for your friends. They would like that a lot, my friend got me something and I liked it. Play with them often. If you never play with your friend I think that they would be bored a lot.

Do stuff that they like to do, like if your friend likes to play outside go play outside with them. Share. I know you might not like to share sometimes, and that is ok. I do not like to share sometimes, but it is nice and I think you and your friends would have a lot more fun. Give them stuff that you do not want or that does not fit you. It's something that you think they would enjoy. Do not do stuff that they do not like. For example, if you like video games but your friend does not, don't do it. Do something that you both enjoy. Do not brag. Your friends will not like it if you brag and they might not want to hang out with you if you brag to them. Don't blame something you did on your friends. That could get you in trouble. Stand up for them. If they are getting bullied, make it stop. Help them with stuff if they need it. If they can't reach something, then help them and maybe you can reach it. That is how to be a good friend.

How to be a Good Friend

By Emmett Garrett

How to be a good friend. Be nice to everyone. That can make someone want to be your friend. If you are mean to everyone they will not want to be your friend. If your friend is getting bullied, end it. Don't stand there, do something. If your friend asks for help you should help them. It would be rude not to help them. When a friend starts talking, listen to them instead of talking when they talk. If your friend is not feeling well, you can ask them how you can help. How to be a Good Friend ...

By Molly Cummings

Do you want to know how to be a good friend? Well, I am here to tell you how. First, you need to be nice, kind, helpful and generous. You could be helpful by helping your friend up when he or she falls or help them clean something up. Next, you need to encourage them when they don't think they can do something or are scared about doing something. If they are about to go to the front of the class and do a presentation and they don't think they can do it. You can say, "You got this", or "You can do it." You can even say, "Trust me you are going to nail this presentation, you won't even know why you are nervous." Lastly, if they are sad you help them feel better. If they are sad, go over and ask if they want to talk about it. Sometimes you just need to make them laugh and get their mind away from the thing they are sad about. One time I was sad and my friend Sierra Kruger came over to me and started to be funny. She made me laugh. We ended up playing and my mind wasn't thinking about what I was sad about. Hopefully this helped you become a good, caring and helpful friend.

By Jaycee Clayton

A good friend is a loyal person who supports you, cares for you, messes around with you, and will always be there for you. First, a quality of a good friend is, you sometimes fight but you know you still love each other! For example, all of my friends have fought with me at least once, but we always make it up to each other and never have once hated each other. That makes a good friend. Let's say some friends get in a fight and they decide they don't want to be friends anymore and they never apologize or speak to each other again. Their relationship with each other wasn't very good then.

They should work it out another day so they have time to think about it. Next, friends share special moments with each other and laugh together. My closest friend has known me since we were 3. That's special to me because I know that they are a good friend. By knowing them for so long, I know how they act and how they are to me. If you have a friend you have known for many years, then appreciate them and tell them how much they mean to you. Lastly, good friends will never, ever leave you. They are always there for you. For example, my closest friend helps me up whenever I fall down, Cheers me up when I'm sad, and most importantly, is always there for me. Fake friends would knock on your front door. Real friends would walk right in and say, "I'M HOME!" Fake friends will help you up when you fall over. Real friends will jump on top of you and shout "PILE UP!" Fake friends are for a while. Real friends are for life. That is truly what makes a good friend!

the other person trust you more and want to be friends. You shouldn't lie or talk behind their back. You should be kind to them. Say stuff like, "I like your shirt." If you aren't kind, your best friend won't want to be friends with you. You could complement them. Say, "I like your drawing." You could also say you are a good person to be around. You will have a good friendship. Now you know how to be a great friend.

Three girls named Hannah, Kelly, and Darbie find a magical cookbook and start cooking spells together. They don't know but that cookbook belonged to Kelly's grandma and her two other friends and that book ripped them apart. In the middle of all this Kelly's grandma stops talking because she's under a spell. The grandma is trying to tell Kelly to stop cooking spells but Kelly is determined to help her grandma. Although the girls fight sometimes they always work it out. The show is a lot about friendship and how friends will always be there for you. Hannah, Kelly, and Darbie start to realize that everytime they cook, something goes wrong and everytime they cook the spell comes with a price.

Pokemon the Show By Milo Brenton

Have you ever heard of a show called Pokemon? My favorite show is Pokemon because it has these creatures called Pokemon with special powers. For example, Pikachu has electric type powers, and Caterpie has bug type powers. Pokemon can also evolve into other Pokemon, like Caterpie evolves into Metapod and then Butterfree. There are many characters that are humans not Pokemon, the main one being named Ash. Ash has a Pokemon named Pikachu, and Ash catches other pokemon like Caterpie. Pokeballs are balls that have what looks like a small belt on them, and where the belt buckle should be, that's where the pokeball has to hit when trying to catch a Pokemon.

There are many seasons of Pokemon, my favorite being season 19, Pokemon XYZ. Every season introduces new Pokemon into the show, there are also special Pokemon called Legendaries, Mythicals, and very recently added, Ultra Beasts, which some people say aren't Pokemon because they come from other worlds or dimensions. Pokemon is a big show with 24 seasons in all. So why don't you go to anything that streams Pokemon and watch the show.

This is about my favorite television series 'Young Sheldon'

By Ezra Clark

My favorite television show is "Young Sheldon". Here are the reasons and examples why. It has a lot of suspense and adventure on it. For example, Sheldon's computer got a virus due to a computer game. Also, when Missy had to get rid of a splinter that Sheldon got while it was just the two of them alone in Mary and George's house. It is the best comedy you could ever get in your whole entire life. Missy grabbed Sheldon's train and she said "Chao Chao". George tries to figure out the barlin barbecue recipe from Meemaw.

There is a lot of inspiration in the series. During another part of the barlin barbecue recipe, Sheldon remembers the recipe because Meemaw told him as a baby. In another episode, Sheldon was so scared of the flu he resorted to wearing a spacesuit. Mary finally convinced him to take off the suit but then once he got inside the house he got the flu. These are the examples and reasons why "Young Sheldon" is my favorite television series.

All American is my Favorite TV Show

By Kyran Jochim

All American is my favorite tv show. It is based on a true story about a high school football player named Spencer James. He is a very good football player. He is a wide receiver and originally played for Crenshaw. He transferred to Crenshaw because Coach Billy Baker, from Beverly Hills, came and asked Spencer to play for him. Spencer said, "No." Then, Coach Billy Baker goes to Spencer's mom and convinces her to make Spencer go to Beverly Hills. Spencer gets shot and he goes into therapy. Later he is completely healed and a great football player again.

That's why All American is my favorite tv show, so go and watch it!

My Preferred Television Show

By Gideon Krestakos

My favorite television show is Mr. Iglesias. It is extremely humorous and it teaches important life lessons at the same time. It is about a history teacher who tries to make his student's better people. He makes fun of people from history. You finally get to see what happens in the teacher's lounge and more!

I highly recommend this show because it is hilarious. Watch it on Netflix!

"The best in the parsec" and on TV: The Mandalorian

By Noah Lennon-Heiden

Here's a recipe for a superb story. Take one hero in armour, add one cute, green sidekick, and top off with a bunch of alien friends. Serve with plenty of action and adventure. The result will be delicious.

The Mandalorian is the best show on tv! My first reason I like this show is the hero, Manda. He is a strong bounty hunter who says, "I can bring you in warm, or I can bring you in cold." You don't think he cares about anything more than payment in Imperial credits and Beskar. But quickly in the series, he chooses to help Baby Yoda. The bounty was searched for by the evil Moth Gideon for his Force abilities.

Manda risks his life for many others throughout the series. My second reason for liking this series is that he meets a lot of very good friends that help him on his journey to help Baby Yoda. He needs their help. His spaceship breaks down often, he fights Dark Troopers, a Krayt Dragon, and other bad guys. Every episode has its own adventures, but all of them are about Manda's journey to keep Baby Yoda safe and to follow the Mandalorian "way."

My third and final reason is because even though there are lots of evil Storm Troopers, there's also a lot of humor. One time a little boy had cookies but would not share them, so Baby Yoda used the Force to take them! It is very funny when the little boy looks over to see that Baby Yoda is eating his cookies! He also loves naps.

A Series of Unfortunate Events By Braylen Mullis

A Series of Unfortunate Events is my favorite show. It is an action packed and thrilling show where lots of crazy things happen. A villain named Count Olaf is trying to steal a bunch of orphans' fortunes. He also follows them to each new parents house after one of his evil plans works. He gets rid of the new parents almost every time,, and he follows the orphans. He disguises himself every time he follows them. He is trying to get rid of the orphans so he gets their fortune. Usually every time the orphans accuse him, the parents say he is who he said he was. He also has a gang to help him pull off his evil plans. Count Olaf is on the run from the police. He is really close to catching the orphans and getting their fortune, but his evil plans are always foiled. This is my favorite show because it inspired me to read the entire book series since the show is based on the book series.

My favorite TV Show 'SpongeBob Squarepants' By William Ortiz

This is what I think of my favorite TV show "SpongeBob Squarepants". I started watching SpongeBob when I was four years old. I was really into the sea theme. I liked seeing SpongeBob and Patrick annoy Squidward. I really liked the episode when SpongeBob and Patrick found the magical pencil, they pranked Squidward with it and it had a lot of jokes. The first time I ever saw the Krusty Krab and SpongeBob working there I wanted to be a chef.

So I learned how to cook. I can make 5 different things like eggs, pancakes, ramen, cake and cupcakes. That's why SpongeBob Squarepants is my favorite TV show.

My Favorite TV Show By Madi Sherry

My favorite series is The Haunted Hathaways. Why that show? Well because the Hathaways move into a house, that seems a little off. Ghosts are living there. In ghost tradition, the ghosts scare off the humans that live there. Preston, the ghost dad, wants the girls to stay. And yes, there is one more catch. The only people living in the house can see the ghosts. The Haunted Hathaways, is a comedy on Netflix, and Nickelodeon. When one of the girls, the humans living in the house, go to school, they are talking to the ghosts in school. Someone looks at her, and thinks she's talking to herself. Also, some humans other than the people living in the house can see the ghosts, because they have the gift. It's super funny and the ghosts help the humans with their problems fitting in, and with their enemies. I recommend watching this show for 7-12 year olds!

Gilligan's Island is My Favorite TV Show

By Maggie Sullivan

Gilligan's Island is my absolute favorite TV show. It has three seasons from 1964-1967. First, I like it because Gilligan is so funny. He trips over things and gets tricked easily. Everybody knows he's been tricked but him. He gets lost on their tiny island, ruins things, makes everybody mad, and accidentally makes lots of trouble. It even says in one episode guide: "... various factions construct individual huts that can withstand neither hurricanes nor Gilligan." He always mixes things up, but he always is the one who saves the day. Next, it makes you think about all of the ways you can use coconuts, palm branches, and bamboo. They build houses on the shore made out of bamboo tied together with palm branches. They make chairs, tables, and one time a lookout tower. The Professor made a machine out of the branches to wash their clothes that was powered by someone pedaling. A Japanese sailor even made a prison out of bamboo. Last, I like the weird people that Gilligan and his friends deal with. They deal with: a weird Japanese guy in a submarine who thinks it is still World War 2 and tries to take them captives; a bank robber who came to their "uninhabited" island to hide out; a native tribe from a different island who think they played the war drum, but Gilligan was just playing a regular drum; a guy who accidentally surfed there from Hawaii on a tsunami; an old aviator who crashed his plane on the island, whose name is Wrongway Feldman; and many more. This is why Gilligan's Island is my absolute favorite TV show, and why I think you should watch it.

My Favorite TV Show Is Full House

By Olivia Turner

I am inspired by how they take care of things in their house. When I'm older I think I would want to be like their family. The show is about a family of three girls Stefani, Stet, DJ, and Michelle. Michelle's the youngest and DJ is the oldest. They have a dad named Danny, Dan, and a mom named Pam. She died before the first episode. Last but not least, there's Joey and Jesse. Jesse has a wife named Rebecca and twins named Alex and Nicky. I like how Joey has more comedy than the other characters because he just lightens up the whole show and Michelle has the cutest attitude. That adds drama to the series. You should watch Full House because I like it. So why couldn't you like it?

Sometimes people, like me, wonder what makes a good friend. I think after you read this you will have so many friends and I just know it. First off I want a good friend to spread kindness toward others and to me. That could look like helping someone or a teacher. When you meet a friend you need to be respectful because they might be a talker; they talk a lot so you need to be a listener. For most people, they don't like to listen to people who just talk about themselves. So, they/or you should talk about other things for instance, school, sports, or just anything going on in their life. Another big example that I think applies to any friend group is honesty. Honesty is being trustworthy.

For example: keeping your secrets and not any from you. See, if you don't trust them then they're probably not a great friend. They say that "Honesty is the best policy." The main thing is that you and your friend are having fun. If you're not having fun then why would you want to hangout with them? When you have a friend they should support you and encourage you, don't discourage you. When your friend is feeling upset about their grade, what would you do? What would you say? Well if you want to encourage your friend you could say things like, "You'll get it next time, or just study and retake the test!"

When you have a friendship you probably want to keep it going, right? So, talk to each other, hangout, play outside, or talk about the things that you have in common. You'll be surprised by how many things you will have in common. So, remember when you want your friend to be all of these things you have to be them too. Thank you so much for reading this message.

What makes a good friend?

By Emalie Olnick

Hi, having a friend is a good concept. When you have a friend you have someone to talk to if you're going through something and someone to talk to. For example, let's say your parents got in a fight and you're sad, but you want to talk to someone but not an adult you could talk to a trusted friend. Never give up, you will always have someone on your side. Like me, and all of YOUR FRIENDS, your friends will help you in the dark. Treat others the way you want to be treated. If you treat your friends nicely they will treat you the same way back.

What makes a good friend?

By Emily Mauer

A good friend is someone you can trust and tell everything to them .

You can tell them when you are upset, when you have something important or when you need a friend to help you with anything. Just for someone to be there when you need them and a friend will always have your back no matter what. You can get in a fight and you will laugh about it the next day.

Friends will make you laugh more than anyone else can. You feel safe when you are with friends. You know that you can be there with them when they are down because you know they will be there for you. That is why it is good to have a good friend.

What makes a good friend

By Isabella Allen

Hello, my name is Isabella Allen and I will be writing a paragraph on what makes a good friend!

One of the things that makes someone a good friend is being able to trust them with the things that you tell them. This helps the fact that you can tell them ANYTHING and they won't say a word about it if you don't want them to.

Another thing that makes someone a good friend is your bond! If they have a good bond with you, talk with you often, and play or hang out with you often, then your bond should be strong enough for you to stay friends with them!

I think one of the biggest most important things to being a good friend is being kind. If the person that you want to be your friend or even best friend is kind to you, then they are definitely someone that you should be around! To be kind to someone you have to say nice things, do nice things, and be nice to them in general and you should get the same kind of attention back!

Almost all of my friends are nice to me, so I'm nice to them and that's why we're friends!

Another really important thing is respect! It kind of links with kindness but it's a little different! You need to respect each other to be good friends! For example, let's pretend that I don't like the color blue, but my best friend loves it! We both need to respect the fact that we might like one thing differently!

The last thing to a key friendship is being honest! To be super good friends, you need to be honest about things! Don't lie to each other about things that you shouldn't be joking about! It will make you guys build trust in each other!

That's all of the things that should make a good friend!

Thank you!

A good friend

By Madilynn Sutton

Have you ever heard that "A good friend is like a four-leaf clover: Hard to find and lucky to have?" Or "The only way to have a friend is to be one?" Some people today can relate to these short sayings, but some people don't know what a good friend is and how to be one. Good friends can consist of many things like relating to you or having the same interests as you, but the qualities that stand out in a good friend are the ones you can't always see physically. For example, friends that are kind-hearted and friends that listen to every word you say. Sometimes it may look like your friend isn't listening, but good friends listen even when they aren't looking at you. You can be a good friend by being respectful and caring. Sometimes, your friend may be sad and you may need to be caring and cheer them up. I have many good friends that have these traits. They always look out for me and listen to what I have to say. I'm lucky to have these friends, just like you can be lucky to find a four-leaf clover.

What makes a good friend

By Phillip Meier

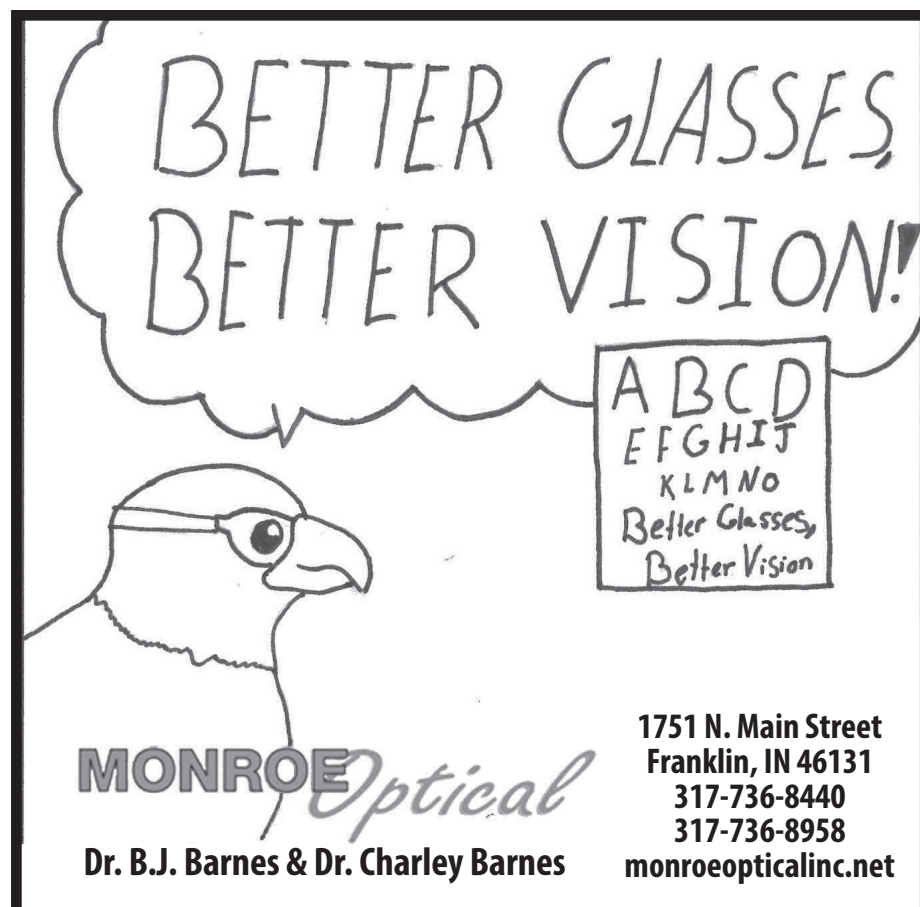

"A friendship that can end never really began," says Publilius Syrus. What makes a good friend is someone who is funny, someone who is nice and kind to you, someone who is almost always there for you. This can make a good friend because if you ever feel down then your friend can make you feel better by making you laugh or do something nice for you just to make to feel better. A good friend will always be there for you no matter what and will always help you out. But just cause someone doesn't have one of these traits doesn't mean you can't be their friend, you don't even have to look the same just to be friends. What does matter though is that you both care for each other and you will be there for each other.

because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." When Peter says this to the listeners, he states that a good friend offers hospitality, doesn't grumble, and serves others with what God has given them.

I believe that a good friend should have these qualities and kindness and loyalty to honor God with them. Just like it says in 1 Peter 4:11 that "If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides". In my life, I have seen many good friends that show these qualities, they are my friends Norah, Krisalyn, and Eden. These three friends even honor God with all that they do with their amazing characteristics. These people in my life make every day fun when they are with me. I love having my friends around when they are kind to others and me!

In conclusion, as a result of showing these kind qualities, we would be a good friend and we would be more like Jesus. It is good to remember that you should have loyalty, offer hospitality without grumbling, and use your gifts to serve the Lord. My friends and I love seeing people in action with these qualities. I hope that you learned more about showing these good qualities. I hope you can show them and be a good friend too!

By Ava Skinner

What makes a good friend? I think a good friend is someone who looks out for you and is there for you when you need them. You need a friend that is kind and nice. In 1 Thessalonians 5:11 it says therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing. They should have good personality

Some qualities that make a good friend are having each other's back, talking and sharing things to see if you have anything in common. To hang out after school or when you get home. help each other out when they need it or when they are in a bad situation.

If someone is trying to bully your friend you stick up for them or you tell them to leave your friend alowen. To build up your friendship you can ask them if they would like to go with you somewhere fun. If you heart there feelings and you did not know go up to them and say sorry and tell them that you did not mean to heart there feelings.

I have a friend these qualities she has a good personality, she is kind, nice, there when I need her, she will ask me to do fun things, we will play outside of school, and we talk and share about are similarities and differences. Lastly if one of us is going threw a hard time we are there for each other against them. Secondly, to be a good friend you need to be trustworthy. Someone that is trustworthy is someone that is reliable and honest.

Third, to be a good friend you need to respect them. This means that you listen to what they have to say, and you are kind to them. Romans 12.10 states "Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor" This basically tells us to love one another with affection and to be outgoing and show honor.

Lastly, Being a good friend means that you forgive easily. For example, if your friend accidentally broke your favorite toy, instead of getting angry and furious, you need to quickly forgive them and get over it. These qualities that I shared with you, loyal, trustworthy, respectful, and forgiving are attributes of a good friend.

I hope that this essay can help your relationship with your friend.

Qualities A Friend Should Have
By Charlotte Detig

Do you have trouble making friends at school or anywhere else? Well if you keep reading you will find out that there are qualities that can help you make a good choice in friendship. Some of those qualities are kindness, loving, loyal, and ect.

Let me first explain how these qualities are important to have. The qualities are important to have because if you didn't have them you would easily hurt someone. Also without them you would not make friends because you weren't being kind to other people. I have a friend that has all the qualities that there can be and yah she makes mistakes and so do I. Since we both sin we are ok to be friends because we didn't let sin get in the way of our friendship and neither should you. Some other qualities that a friend should have are fun, faithful, and some others. Another reason these qualities are important is because they are what partially make you human. Some things you could do to embrace your friend is sometimes letting them choose the game you play or helping them out when they need it! Something very very important that you should know is that we don't make friends just for fun, we make them so that you have someone to talk to when you need it or because if no one in the entire world made a single friend then we would be lonely and wouldn't be able to learn from our mistakes and wouldn't know how to act with other people. It's so important to know how to follow these qualities and how to act them when you're around other people.

In conclusion, I want to say that it is important to know how to act around other people and how to use the qualities of friendship to help you make friends and the qualities will help you act and fit in with other people. I also want to add that when you follow these qualities just remember that they don't solve everything you come across. As you grow older you will experience that these and many more qualities will teach you more ways to be kind and more thoughtful to other people. I hope that you share this information with people you meet and people you already know.

need to be friendly. You can be kind by saying nice things like how was your day or I like your haircut. To listen you need to hear what your friend is saying before you talk so they can share their thoughts.

To be friendly you need to do things that help people like helping show someone how to use the monkey bars if they can't reach and say encouraging words like "good job that's the farthest you have ever gone!" And if a person needs help practicing for a test you should help them study. Do those things to be a good friend to people.

I have a friend that has almost all those qualities and he is like the best friend in the world. Actually I have two one loves the police force and the other is very good at video games. And they are the best friends I have ever had. They have those qualities and that is why they are really good friends.

Friends are not people that you can boss around, they are people you can trust, you can count on, and people you know that they will have your back. If you need help your friends are there if you need advice your friends are there if you have nowhere to go your friends are there.

If you want to get by in this world you need to have 1 good friend just 1 good friend to have your back and you can get through this tough earth.

What Makes a Good Friend

By Jesse Pence

For me what makes a good friend is if they are loyal, kind, and fun. I think a good friend is someone who is loyal because I would know if they were lying to me but if they are loyal they wouldn't lie to me at all. Also they would not lie to adults and not blame things on other people. And they would say if they need help or anything else.

I think another thing a good friend should do is be nice. If your friend is nice they would be a good example for other kids. And you would want to hang out with them more often. And it is a good thing to be friends with someone that is nice.

Also they would be nice to you and that is something everyone should do.

Lastly, another thing a good friend should do is be fun because. They should do things you want to do and have fun with them while you're doing it. I feel this way because I think it is good to have a friend that likes to do what you want to do.

In conclusion I feel these are all good things a friend should do to be a good friend. I feel this way because you would want a loyal, fun and kind friend.

You might be asking yourself what makes a good friend and how can we be a good friend. One of the many things you can do to be a good friend is be nice, share and also have fun. Those are very important to friendship because if you don't do those things they will not want to be your friend so when you want a friend those are the things you want to do.

You need to be loyal in friendship because if you are not they will not like you and they will think. When someone tries to tell you something you will tell everybody so you have to be loyal. You have to share, sharing is good. You should always share no matter what, because if you do not share your friends will dislike you and they will not want to be your friend. You should always have fun once in a while. It is good to have fun with friends.

In conclusion I would want a friend with all those qualities. We would all want a friend like that. That's nice, loyal and fun. That would be a real friend, a really good friend. That's what kind of friend we should be no matter what circumstances. And also to new people we should do all those qualities to them.

By Kinley Pagano

What makes a good friend? Well, what makes a good friend is being nice, you need to be nice to at least start things off. If you are a good friend you would go up to someone and be nice, not be mean to them. Also, your friend needs to feel loved, so you need to do that for them.

First, you need to greet your friend with a nice hello. Then, ask them if they want to play or do something sometime. Then, if they say yes you could buy them a gift, but if you are a good friend you won't need to buy them a gift because they will like you for who you are. But, if you wanna be a good friend, then be yourself, no one cares, all they want to do is play and hang out with you, not have you try to get their attention with gifts. But, you can still buy them gifts, just at first, try to be yourself.

Second, don't worry about them liking you because they should like you for who you are. And, everyone is a good friend if they are nice. So, if you wanna be a good friend then follow these steps, first, be good at being you, second, see what they like, like their favorite hobbies, sport, subject in school, or even a talent that they have. And finally third, ask them if they would hang out some time with you and if they say yes, then I think that you are a good friend.

Now third, don't think that no one will like you so you over do yourself, because up in the second paragraph I said be yourself. Cause, if you wanna be the bestest friend in the whole entire universe, then be yourself, because you would win the friend nobel prize. Now, we do know that God is the bestest friend and that He would win it. But, you could win it too.

Now, whoever is reading this say to yourself right now, "I am amazing, I am the bestest friend in the world because God made me that way and I know that He made me in his image, and that if I am my self I am the bestest friend in the world."

Do you know what makes a good friend? I think that a good friend is someone that you can trust and rely on. I also think that a good friend is someone who is kind, generous, and is there for you when you need them the most. Let's take a moment to read what a good friend is!

I believe that a good friend has certain qualities that make you want to be around them more often. Some of these qualities are that they are kind, loving, generous, caring, supportive, and lift you up when you need it the most. In my opinion, I have many good friends that go beyond the qualities I have already stated. During Covid, I had felt really lonely, so when I had gotten messenger kids and was able to connect with my friends again, they made me think that this whole world wasn't going crazy nor getting crazier by the minute! Some of the things that I have in common with some of my friends are that we like to do crafts, read, play sports, bake, and have fun! I am so glad that I have some really close and caring friends!

Some things that would make a good friend are the way they treat you and others. What also makes a good friend is how they care about other people more than themselves. So remember, when you need a good friend, make sure that the person you think will be a good friend, see if you have anything in common!

Also, make sure that that person is someone that you can trust and rely on to do something for you no matter how hard the task may be!

A Good Friend

By Madelyn Greika

What makes a good friend? Being a good friend is being kind and loyal so if you want to be a good friend. Then you have to include everyone because you can't leave someone out of the group. And you have to let others go first like if one of your friends wants to play a different game then you. Then playing it might be fun and it's fun to try something different.

First, Making new friends is hard for some people. But if you have a new neighbor then the nice thing to do is greet them and that could also be a good chance to make a new friend. And also it's good to share something in common like drawing, singing, and dancing. But it's still ok to not have something in common because everyone is different. Because your friend might like dancing and you like drawing and don't like to dance and that's ok it's ok to be different.

Second, to be a good friend you also have to include everyone. even the people you don't like because God says to include everyone, even your enemies. And also treat everyone with respect. And if your friend hurts herself, get a parent or help her up. Or just comfort her and make her feel better.

In conclusion, Being a good friend is good. But sometimes it could be hard because making new friends or having a fight with your friend. Also treat everyone with respect and kindness. And having a good friend is great. I have good friends and you can probably name one of your friends that is a good friend.

How To Make A Friend

By Mason Hurley

Proverbs 18:24 says, "One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend that sticks closer than a brother". This verse is saying that a friend can be closer than a brother. You could have a brother, but a friend could stick closer than the brother.

For example, I have four brothers in my house, but I also have a really good friend at school named Ryder. But just because I have brothers doesn't mean I couldn't have a friend closer than that. Ryder is one of those friends that is loyal, and fun to be around.

Also if you just moved houses not too long ago then all of your old friends will be gone, so that's when you need to make new friends, and new memories like going to your neighbors house or to a park to find new and different friends. Anyway you could probably go to the same school and find the same friends as well. But if you go to the same school and there's people that have just moved to that school then you can be friends with them.

In conclusion, to make new friends you can just go to your friends house, or your neighbors house and even the park and make friends with them. Really anywhere you can make new friends, the only thing that you have to be is brave, and encouraging.

What Makes A Good Friend

By Mya White

1 Thessalonians 5:11 says, "Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing." This Bible verse says friends should encourage each other, but should friends do much more than just that? What do you think?

A good friend should be caring for you. A good friend should be caring because that shows you that they are thoughtful about you. When my friend thinks of me, I feel really joyful to know I have someone to count on. Having a caring friend can also mean they respect you, your opinions, and the way you do things. It also makes a better friendship between you and your friend.

Another characteristic a good friend should have is honesty. A good friend should be honest because it gives them a chance to express themselves. When a friend is honest it lets you know that they really don't want to lie to you. My friend always tries her best to be honest with me about things we talk about. Honesty is almost the best characteristic a good friend can have.

Last but not least, a good friend should be humorous. A good friend should be humorous because they can lighten the mood easily. My friend is so funny when it comes to sad and good times. But she never lets her jokes go too far. She has perfect jokes at the perfect time. If you are having a bad day, look up to your humorous friend.

In conclusion, what I'm trying to say is, lots of people wonder what a good friend is. But a real true friend is someone who cares about you, is honest with you, and someone who makes you laugh on your worst days. Good friends who have these characteristics are kinda hard to find. So, if you ever find a good friend like this, keep them, for the sake of you.

To Live as Friends

By Natalie McGill

"And friends are friends forever If the Lord's the Lord of them And a friend will not say never 'Cause the welcome will not end Though it's hard to let you go In the Father's hands we know That a lifetime's not too long To live as friends." - Michael W. Smith. A friend, what does that word really even mean? A friend is someone that stays by your side no matter what, they do not let go of you. They encourage you forever, helping you grow. Friends are the people that love you and change your life.

I've had so many friends in my life they have been so encouraging and loving. A real friend has several good qualities that make them worthwhile. A really good friend is trustworthy, supportive, they accept you as you are, they listen to you, they feel your pain with you, they rejoice with you, they're loyal to you, and most of all they are there when you need them. This is why we need friends. A good friend stays with you throughout your life. Friends are precious. Knowing from experience if you don't have friends there by your side caring for you your self esteem will drain as well as your self-confidence. This is why we need friends.

Friends love you and accept you. They know that you are precious to them and they strive to help you in any way that they can. Most relationships have people that have similar interests and characteristics meaning that you can really talk to them about whatever is on your heart. Also, friends are fun. This is because you can talk to them and it makes you and your friend happy. For example, when you and your friend have a mile or two to run in gym class and you don't want to, you can talk and it can be fun and easy. Not everyone is an extrovert though. But even if you are an introvert, friends are so nice and helpful. Friends are just so nice and loving. Basically if you want to be a good friend, be kind, nice, loving, respectful, nurturing, trustworthy, protective, and a good listener. This really sums it up. So really this quote just sums it up, and is a powerful quote to know and one that I live by. "And friends are friends forever If the Lord's the Lord of them And a friend will not say never 'Cause the welcome will not end Though it's hard to let you go In the Father's hands we know That a lifetime's not too long To live as friends." - Michael W. Smith. "To live as friends".

Do You Know What a Friend Looks Like?

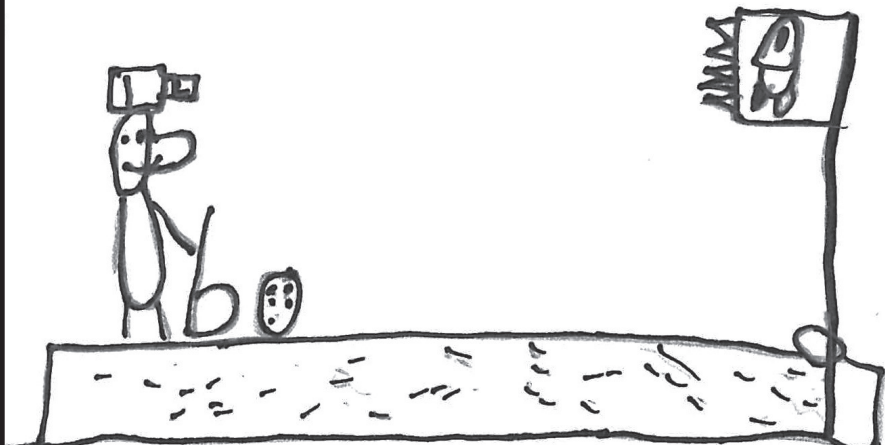

By Noah Coffey

Do you know what a true friend looks like? One that actually cares? One that doesn't use the "Nobody asked" insult against you? A friend that won't get you hurt or lure or trick you into doing the wrong thing? Maybe you are that friend, maybe your friend is one of them, maybe you know someone who is one of these things.

Do you know who you should be friends with, or can you trust them? A friend is someone who won't throw you under a bus metaphorically and physically, maybe your friend start to bully you, this is betrayal, a horrible feeling, this also means they aren't your friend, you have to stand up for yourself and others and yourself if you want a friend like them, you have to stop them and turn them into a normal human being such as yourself. You don't steal, you don't swear, you don't hurt people, you don't betray them for a stupid reason such as not letting you on the gaming device first. Do you? Exactly, a friend is someone who does not do these things, a friend is the complete opposite as someone who is hostile or is a thief.

Did you know that most of the time you are making friends with the wrong people? Sometimes your friends will persuade you to do something that you aren't supposed to do, like hurt somebody or tell them something about someone else to spread a false claim. Do not do these things. If your friends try to get you to do any of these things or anything else that isn't normally legal or normal, do not do it, stand up for both of you, tell them what they are doing wrong and how you both or them or you, can fix it.

With all of these things said, I hope that you learned to understand which people you can trust. Don't be friends with gangsters or robbers or people who are just downright cruel to the world. They have to stop the bad things that they do and then you can forgive them and be their friend.

What A Good Friend Is

By Nolan Sexton

I would like to say, a good friend is someone that tries to help you. They try to help you with projects. Try to agree with you. They try to support you.

First, a good friend is a person that helps through your life and agrees with you most of the time. Friends are people that support you through hard times and try to help you. A good friend tries to encourage you. A good friend helps you while you're doing a project. They want to help you through everything.

Second, a good friend helps you with all things. A good friend encourages you. A good friend agrees with you. A good friend supports you. They try to get you through tough times.

Next, a good friend helps you through tough times. A good friend tries to encourage you through tough times. They want to help you get over things. They do things that are fun for you and them.

Finally, a good friend tries to make your life fun, easy, and happy. If you don't have a friend then your life would not be good. If you don't have a friend then you don't have fun. A friend is to make you have a great time.

A Good Friend Comes With Being a Good Person

By Norah Kresge

Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for your friends, even though they are strangers to you." (3 John 1:5). This verse shows that you should be faithful to your friends, and even if they are strangers to you, treat them like friends. It also shows that you should treat everyone, even strangers should be treated kindly like any other person should.

As everyone should, we need to show these good things as a result of not just being a good friend, but as well as being a good person and having a great personality along with it. To be a good friend you have to put them before yourself, and be willing to help them out when they need it. These are some of the qualities that make you a good friend, although there are many more qualities that a good friend should have. I have two amazing friends that share all of these qualities of being a good friend, and I thank them for that. They are Krisalyn, and Aliana. I love having them around, because they bring lots of joy to me, as well as others. Other things it takes to be a good friend is support. You should support your friends in everything you do. Also you need to treat them how you would want to be treated. If you do not want your friends to be mean to you, or anything else like that, then do not do it to them.

In conclusion, these are the things in my opinion that I think make a true good friend, a real friend. You should remember that a good friend puts them before themselves, is willing to help them out, and treats them fairly, and how you would like to be treated in return. Also, you should be faithful, as well as honest to your friends in all that you say to them, or do. I hope you succeed in treating your friends fairly, and with respect, and I also hope they treat you the same way in return for you treating them well.

What Makes a Good Friend By Owen Smith

To start things off today I am talking about what makes a good friend so to start off a good friend is some who is kind and loyal to you and is not rude or a jerk to you at all they are also fun and funny they might also share something in common like playing on your bike with your bikes and friends they also are nice to others and let other people play in a game that they are playing even if that person who wants to join does not like them.

Here are some more reasons for what makes a good friend, for example qualities like being kind, being fun, or being good at making games. Also being kind to the other kids and new kids to the school or neighborhoods and letting them come and join in the games that you and your friend are playing even if the other kids are litter or mean because your good can become their good friend and make them turn into a good friend to other kids also they mostly like to be nice to kids who are not nice to them and want to become friends with them instead of not becoming friends with that person like if the kid is being rude to that good friend they will not be rude to them because they are a good friend even if that mean bully does not want to become friends with them the good friend still will try to become friends or try to make the bully become nice to the other kids that they are being mean or bully here is The Golden Rule from the bible "treat others how you want to be treated" that even means that you have to be kind and a good friend to people you do not want to be kind to because they are mean to you but if you are kind and a good friend to that rude kid they might be nice to you and your friends then maybe then that bully will become your friend

In conclusion you should be a good friend to everyone you meet and be kind to the people around and who do not like you or let you play with them in a game that you want to play in but they do not let you or even let your friends play in you should most likely tell the person who will not let your friends join to ask why then maybe then say well I am friends with them and they are really nice to others then they might them join and can be good friends with your good friends

What Makes a Good Friend By Ransom Graves

For me and others, a good friend is one who is honest and kind. I believe that these qualities are what make a good friend because if your friend is honest you can always trust that they are telling the truth and are not lying to you. If your friend is kind, they will likely help you in a time of need and if you do not have something that you need they can help you. Sharing something in common with a friend is also what makes a good friend because then you can do a lot of the same things together and play with each other more often.

I do not have a best friend with these qualities. My former best friend I cannot trust and is not being kind to me currently. In other words I don't know if I have a best friend anymore. I do have one friend that is honest and kind but we do not have much in common so we don't play with each other that often, we just talk at lunch and maybe recess. I do have a few good friends but not a best friend.

Having a good friend is very important for everyone because if you don't then so many life options could be lost. If you have a good friend that means that a lot of life options are available to you and it is mentaly healthy to have a good friend.

In conclusion, I believe that a good friend is honest and kind. It is also mentaly healthy to have a good friend.

What makes a good friend?

By Shiloh Adeyemi

Friends are fun to be with because you can trust them. But you should make sure that they are real friends that you can trust.

First of all, if they are a real friend, they wouldn't get you in trouble so that they wouldn't get in trouble. For example, if your friend took something from somebody and they say that you did it, that means they aren't a good friend.

Second of all, If your friend is asking you to give him/her stuff every time, then they are probably using you so that they can get free stuff. This is hard to notice because you don't know if they are asking you stuff because they need it, or they are asking you stuff because they want it. Third of all, A good friend means that they would help you anytime you need help. For example, If you dropped something and can't pick it up, then they would pick it up for you. I have a friend who helps me anytime I need help.

In conclusion, Good friends are fun to have, but just remember if your friend is a true friend.

What Makes a Good Friend By Alyssa Shotts

"One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother" (Proverbs 18:24). This verse from the book Proverbs explains everyone needs a good friend so what makes a good friend?

First of all, you need a person who supports you in your hard times and you need to support them in their hard times. If you support a person when they have a bad day they would want to be your friend. You also need a person that always includes you in all their games.

Second of all, you need a person that makes you happy and you make them happy too. God wants us to be happy and have a good relationship with him and have a relationship with good friends. God wants us to have real friends that follow God and he wants you to be kind to them and they be kind to you. You need a person who loves you and you need to love them back.

Third of all, if your friend is having a bad day and they tell you to leave them alone, respect their wishes and leave them alone and pray for them. If your friend is mad at you, say sorry for what you did and pray. After you do that and they are still made at you don't be mad at yourself you did your part. But if you are mad at them you forgive them.

Lastly, just be a good friend and be nice, kind, caring, And loving to your neighbor and friend like God wants for us and what God wants for us. We better do it because it is the best way to live.

Things That Make a Good Friend By Ava Carmichael

What makes a good friend you might ask? Someone that makes a good friend is a person that is kind, caring, and supportive, as well as many other things. When I think of a good friend, I think of the good friends that I already have. My friends have many good qualities, but they are kind, caring and supportive.

A good friend is someone who is kind. They aren't just kind to me, they are kind to everyone. Even if they do not know someone very well, or someone is not kind to them, they are still kind to that person. I don't want a friend that is only kind to me and not everyone else.

A good friend is someone who is caring. They would help others when they needed help, even if they were too shy to ask for help. A caring person thinks about how others feel, not just how they feel. A good friend wants everyone to be happy and feel loved no matter who they are.

A good friend is someone who is supportive. Sometimes friends have different things that they like to do. A supportive friend is happy for me when I reach a goal or try new things, even if they don't like to do those things. If we are doing the same thing, like playing a game or playing the same sport, they are happy for me even if I am better at that sport or game.

In conclusion, I believe that a good friend has many great things about them, but they are always kind, caring and supportive. If you can find a friend that is kind to you and others, cares about you and how you are feeling, and supports you when you try new things, then you have a good friend. If you can be kind, caring and supportive to your friends, then you are also a good friend.

By Blaine Hammond

What makes a good friend? Have you ever had that friend that's just the diamond in the ruff, the friend you've always imagined, and the person who would help you when you fall down? Well I can help by describing what makes a good friend that will have your back until the end of time.

First, what makes a good friend is someone who is loyal, kind, and uplifting. One quote from Hellen Keller "I would rather walk with a friend in the dark, than alone in the light." This quote shows how friends should always be there for you even in the darkest of times.

Next, friendship is something that once you have it you should never leave it behind. You keep it healthy, you don't feed it lies, secrets, and many other things that would bring that friendship down to the core of earth. Then if you succeed at that then what you should do next is to invite them to important events and stuff like that.

Lastly, when you invite that specific person you learn more about each other and see what they like. Then you should tell that friend stuff about you to increase that friendship between you and that person. After that you should help your friend with any problems they're facing like the death of a loved one.

In conclusion, you should be that friend that is always there or have a friend that is always there for you. Also friends should be loyal, kind, and uplifting to everyone. Finally, you should always just look for someone who looks like they could be that one friend that could change your life completely.

What is a Good Friend
By Braeleigh Skiles

A good friend is a person you may have known for a while. But does that person meet your wants? John 15:12-15 says, "My command is this: Love each other as I loved you. Greater love has no one than this: To lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command." Is this person a good friend, they might be!

First, is your friend your best friend ever? That's good! Best friends are good to have your back when you need it most, right? A good friend should be there for you whenever. A good friend should trust you and not turn on you. We should love our friends for trying even if they get it wrong.

Second, if you have a best friend from a while ago then they will be there for you then more likely a friend from a couple weeks or days. A good friend, or a better friend would be someone to know you a lot more than a friend who barely knows you. You can have much more fun with the person who knows you better because they know what places you like and what your hobbies are.

Third, another good part of a good friend is someone who won't replace you. If the person you've known the longest and they replace you, then maybe you shouldn't be friends with that person and find someone you know won't replace you. If you need to know if your best friend is replacing you, then see if they have time for you. If they say no to hanging out with you and are getting to the point where they never wanna see you it's replacing you, and you shouldn't feel like that.

Lastly, A good friend should help you get ahead, maybe in a business or even a bakery, they can help you, maybe work with you so you can make a little money before lots start coming. This good friend should be there for your business, after all, they should have a little part in it seeing they have helped you.

By Caleb Parramore

Do you have a good friend? Are you a good friend? Good friends have many qualities. A good friend expresses good actions and delivers nice words towards you. A good friend is trustworthy and reliable. Lastly, a good friend follows Christ and his beliefs.

My first quality for being a good friend is that he or she expresses good actions and delivers nice words towards me. You should be kind and thoughtful using your words towards others. You should be encouraging when your friends are around and offer your advice to them. You should offer your help if your friend needs it. You should always assume the best of friends and not assume the worst.

My second quality for being a good friend is reliability and trustworthiness. If you are in need of your friend you should be able to put your trust on their shoulders. You should be able to depend on your friend for anything you need. You should communicate to your friend and admit when you are wrong. You should also show your appreciation for what they do for you. These qualities will help you build a stronger relationship with your friend.

My last quality for being a good friend is someone who follows Christ and his beliefs. According to Proverbs 17:17, it says, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." This verse means that you should love your neighbor as yourself and everyday a good person is born. According to 1 Thessalonians 5:11 it says, "Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing." This means that you should live like Christ and believe in him. You should pray for those in need even though they may not deserve it.

In conclusion, please remember that a good friend is someone who follows Christ. Also, remember that you should be a good friend too. Thank you for reading my essay.

What Makes a Good Friend?

By Daniel Morton

There are many things that make a good friend. There are also many things that make a good friend in your opinion. I will tell you the things in my opinion that make a good friend.

First thing that makes a good friend is loyalty. If you do not have a loyal friend he/she is not your friend. Loyalty is mentioned many times in the Bible. God says that we must be Loyal even to our enemies. "One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother." (Proverbs 18:24)

The second thing that makes a good friend is having fun with your friend. If you do not have a friend that wants to have fun with you it means they don't want to hang out with you. Sooner or later they will stop seeing you. The bible says "Fake friends are like shadows."

The last thing that makes a good friend is having similar interests and hobbies. If your friends have similar interests and hobbies as you do you may enjoy spending more time with them and you may agree on most things.

In conclusion, these are all the things that I think make a good friend loyalty, fun, and similar hobbies. I hope this paper helps at least one person pick their friend.

What Makes a Good Friend

By Evie Satre

"There is nothing on this earth more to be prized than true friendship." "Thomas Aquinas" That is a quote I would use to say what good friendship is.

What makes a good friend is when they want you to play a game with you, or when they ask if you are okay when you are sad. What also makes a good friend is when they like to do what you like to do, also good friends ask what you would like to do instead of them choosing what they want to do. A good friend would go before them when they go somewhere.

My friend and I have things in common like, so things we have in common are that we both are nice, we both have siblings, we both also he pets, also we both like to play outside together, and so those are some ways we are in common. My friend is not someone who would just leave people out when she sees that someone is being left out, she will go to them and say would you like to "hang out with us right now?"

She is not one of those people who would say, for example, if someone is coming up to her and asked if they could play with her or hang out with her, she would go no. That is the person she is not. She is kind and helpful to others. She also thinks about others before herself.

My friend is kind to others, and cares about others before herself. I think that she is a great friend because she is nice, helpful, she cares about others, and does not leave people out when she sees that someone is being left out.

What makes a good friend is that when you are loyal, care about others, and are helpful. Also when they do something that makes you unhappy they say sorry right away to you and ask for forgiveness.

That is the friend that I have. She does all the things a good friend would do. That is some ways to make a good friend. That is also some reasons of how to be a good friend.

What is a Good Friend?

By Halle Johnson

"A sweet friendship refreshes the soul" (Proverbs 27:9). A good friend is someone who is kind, loyal, and they share something in common. Friends encourage each other and care about each other.

First of all, good friends are kind, when a friend is kind it means that they are considerate and caring. Three are many ways a person can be kind. For example, if someone opens the door for you then they are kind because that is a caring thing to do.

Second of all, good friends are loyal, when a friend is loyal it means that they stay with you and are determined to be there for you. I have friends that are loyal, these friends do a lot for me and are always there when you need it most.

Third of all, friends have something in common. For example my good friends and I both like basketball. When you have something in common with a good friend then that thing can be a conversation starter.

Finally, good friends are kind, loyal, and share something in common. Good friends cheer each other up and encourage each other all the time.

What Are True Friends?

By Jacob Rayfield

Did you know that having no friends can be dangerous for your health? At indiatimes.com it said that having no friends hurts you as much as smoking or being overweight!

I believe that what makes a good friend is someone who is loyal, trustworthy, and kind to you. They will make you happy. I know this because I had friends like this. They were my best friends. I could trust them, they were kind to me when I was down, and they wouldn't break a promise. These were my best friends and they always will be. These kids were the Farmers. I met them in Maryland and we played all the time. We would always play outside and never stop until we had to. We came over to their house and they came over to ours. We would have sleepovers and watch movies together. Having friends like that was the best thing in my life and hopefully it will happen again.

In conclusion, the best type of friends are loyal, trustworthy, and kind. They won't let you down and they will always be at your side. They won't hurt you and will be kind. If you're true friends then you'll never forget them even if it's been five years just like it has been to me. That is what a true friend is to me.

By Jonathan Thang

"Sweet friendships refresh the soul and awaken our hearts with joy" Proverbs 27:9a. This verse reminds me that friends don't bring you down or make you feel sad, but rather the opposite. Good friends will bring you up when you are down, help you in times of need, and will be trustworthy.

Good friends bring you back up when you are down. Good friends do not bring you misery or make you depressed, instead they will cheer you up and bring you happiness. For example, if you got rejected from a school that you wanted to go to and you feel sad, your good friends will comfort you until you feel better or find a new school.

A good friend will help you in times of need. A good friend will help you if you need money or help with something. For example, if you are trying to find a job or sign up for one they will help you find one or support you. When you find the job they will still continue to support you.

Something that makes a good friend is trust. You can trust a good friend with secrets or personal problems. When you tell your good friends these they will keep it a secret and won't bring it up with anyone else. A good friend will not let these secrets run loose or let other people get hold of them.

This is what makes a good friend. A good friend is one of the best things in the world. Good friends do not bring you down, give you misery, abandon you, or give your secrets to the world. Remember that a good friend will bring you back up when you are down, help you in times of need, and will be trustworthy.

By Ellie Fleming

"There are friends, there is family, and there are friends that become family." -Unknown. This quote supports my essay because the writer describes how good friends are like family. Good friends support you no matter what. They are kind, loyal, and true, and don't usually hide things from you. Sure there may be personal secrets, but they shouldn't hide things about you behind your back (unless they aren't good friends).

Alright, qualities of a good friend ... They will always be loyal to you and even if they find a new bestie. You can still be kind to them and not spread rumors about how they abandoned you for someone else. A good friend will also always be there for you. They would help you through hard times, like if your dog dies. They were meant to help you through hard times like that. Another thing is that a good friend may fight with you, but you will always apologize and forgive each other. A good friend will also be there or around you, and will always be there as long as you are friends. The only reason a good friend leaves you is that they had to move. Good friends are supposed to be there for you and if yours isn't or spreads rumors then they are most likely not really good friends and are more likely to be fake friends, who pretend to like you, even if they hate you, just to gossip and spread rumors. This is why you need to be careful choosing a friend. Next time you chose a friend, make sure they are kind, loyal, and true, will be able to understand you and your feelings. They also should not give up on your friendship when you have quarrels or disagreements, and will always either apologize or forgive you. A good friend will also always be by your side, no matter what (unless they move away).

A Good Friend

By Lily Bray

What makes a good friend? Well there are a lot of ways you can be a good friend. People might say the best qualities in a friend are caring and kind. The qualities that I think make a good friend are loyal, trustworthy, forgiveness, and steadfastness. These are all great qualities and here is why I chose them.

The qualities I think make a good friend are loyal, trustworthy, forgiveness, and steadfastness. You want a friend to be loyal because they would not be mean, they have faith in you and they are there for you. You want a friend to be trustworthy because not only can you trust them to do something for you, but you trust them where you can tell them anything and they will not tell anyone else. You want a friend to have forgiveness because they can forgive you. A friend should have forgiveness because you can forgive them easily and it will be ok. Not only can they forgive you but when you can forgive them. You want a friend to have steadfastness because you trust them, they are loyal, and all these things that include being steadfast. I have some friends with these traits and I have other friends that don't, but they are still great friends.

In conclusion, these are qualities that I think make a good friend. There are other qualities, but these ones really stand out. I think the best qualities in a friend are loyal, trustworthy, forgiveness, and steadfastness. What do you think makes a good friend?

My best friend

By Maddie Sheets

A true friend is someone who stands up for you and who is there for you when you are having a bad day. In the bible it says, "My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command. John 15:12-15."

First, A true friend stands up for you, is there for you when you are having a bad day, and is there for you when you don't feel good. God says in the Bible "So, we all have probably heard of that Golden Rule of "treat others as you want to be treated." Even Jesus commands us to do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. Matthew 6:12."

Second, Say you have a best friend and you have known them for a long time and then say you were mean to them so they were sad so a true friend should say sorry and they should forgive you. And say they were still mad and they were holding a grudge that means that they are probably not a true friend.

Next, If you have a best friend and they say it's ok I forgive you when you were mean to them that's a good friend. Say you were mad at your best friend because they were mean to you and they said sorry though and you held a grudge then that means you are probably not the best friend you should be.

Lastly, I wanna talk about my best friend. Her name is Kinley. She is very nice. We have known each other since first grade. When I am mean to her I say sorry and she sometimes says I forgive you but sometimes she holds a grudge on me. Even when I am mad that she holds a grudge, I still forgive her because she is my best friend. I should never stay mad at her because then I am holding a grudge.

Good Friends

By Mariyah Diaz

Did you know that if you have a best friend it feels like you have a really close sister or brother? Many friends are very loyal and share many things about themselves when you both have something in common. I'm going to be giving facts about a good friend who makes you laugh and many more things about a good best friend.

To start things off, some qualities of a good friend are when they care about you or ask if you are doing good. Another quality of a good friend is when they make you laugh or make you smile. Those are some hints or qualities of a good friend. Also many good friends also hang out with you most of the time. You have probably had a friend since you were a little kid and you could still be friends with the same person right now which means you have been a good friend and it's lasted a really long time.

Secondly, a good friend should be loyal to you because then it would cause problems in your friendship. A loyal friend would tell you the truth and be honest when you ask a question. A good friend would tell the truth if they said something about you or something else. The majority of good friends are pretty small because a lot of friends would gossip about you or start a rumor about you.

Thirdly, a good friend would care about you or ask if you are okay. Many friends ask this question to you and I might feel like they might care about you when you are down and don't feel your best. Also a good friend would bring you up by saying nice things to you and being there for you. Some friends would like to give you a little goody bag for fun or give you something on special days as a gift.

Lastly, a good friend would encourage you. You might have a tournament and they might cheer you on and encourage you that you can do it or just cheer you on. Many friends encourage each other in many different ways but one way is by saying "you can do it" or "do your best" and "if they win it doesn't matter because you tried your best". That is a lot of encouragement that you can say to a friend.

In conclusion, the facts I stated are qualities of a good friend of how they care about you, encourage you, and make you laugh and smile. Yes, I do have a friend that has these qualities and a lot of my friends care about me and give me little gifts for fun.

What Makes a Good Friend?

By Maya Vasquez

"A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born in a time of adversity." (Proverbs 17:17) A good friend is someone that is loyal, trustworthy, and they share something in common with you. It is very important that a good friend is all of these things, let me tell you why.

First of all, good friends are always loyal to you. To be loyal means to be faithful to one's sovereign, government, or state. Loyal friends always want to be by your side, no matter what happens. My loyal friends do all of these things, like staying by my side.

Second of all, a good friend is trustworthy. To be trustworthy means to be deserving of trust, or confidence. A good friend should always be trustworthy because it is important that you can trust them.

Third of all, a good friend should have something in common with you. If you have something in common with a good friend, it will help you have a better relationship with them. My friend and I have many things in common. We both love basketball, animals, and the outdoors.

In conclusion, it is important to remember that a good friend is someone who is loyal, trustworthy, and they share something in common with you. These are important so that you and your friend can have a good relationship.

The Qualities That Make a Good Friend

By Noah Frye

"Do you have a friend with great qualities, I know that I know somebody".

For example at FriendlyQuotes.com, it states "Walking with a friend in the dark is better than walking alone in the light", I believe a friend is kind, trustworthy and supportive in tough times

First of all, I believe the qualities that make a good friend are kindness, for example if you are feeling sick, they would come over and cheer you up so that you may feel better and just keep you company even if you can't "hang out" together, that is an example of a kind friend.

Second of all, I believe that a good friend is trustworthy, for example, if you have a secret or something that you don't want people to know, they would keep the secret close to their heart and wouldn't tell anybody the secret unless you gave them permission, that is an example of a trustworthy friend.

Third of all, I believe that a good friend is supportive, for example, if you got a bad grade on a test and you felt really upset or just had a bad day in general, they would come over to you and ask "Why are you so upset", that is what makes a supportive friend.

In Conclusion, it is important to remember that the qualities of a good friend are: First of all, being kind to others, even if they are not your best friend, is what makes a kind friend. Second of all, being trustworthy by keeping secrets that your friend told you but doesn't want you to tell other people, that is a trustworthy friend. Lastly, being a supportive friend is checking on you if you had a bad day and helps you get over it, that is a supportive friend.

By Noah Plowman

"Things are never quite as scary when you've got a best friend."- Bill Watterson. There are a large number of humans in the world. The first friend you get is usually your best friend. Though, as life goes on some people forget about their best friend and get a new one. Some people don't even have a best friend, some people just have normal friends. I am not writing this essay to discuss whether you have a best friend or not. Today I am writing this essay to tell you about the qualities of a good friend.

The number one quality a good friend should have is kindness. Sadly, as I look around the world I don't see many friends that are kind. Many people that have a relationship with each other as friends, often don't make the right decisions and are unkind to other people. For example, gangs that are formed are usually made up of bad friends that commit crimes that are kind to others. You must be careful when choosing a friend. Another quality a good friend should have is loyalty. You and your friends must be loyal to each other in order to maintain a good relationship. Friendships are often formed by doing something for one another, though you can form friendships in many different ways.

In conclusion, you should make sure your friends have at least these two qualities. You should make sure that you are loyal to each other. You should make sure that you are kind to each other. I hope my advice helped you in having a good friendship.

By Oakley Heselbarth

Did you know that the word friend means a person whom one knows and with whom one has a bond of mutual affection. Well what makes a good friend? What makes a good friend is trustworthy, helpful, and is kind. Here are some reasons for what makes a good friend.

First off, what makes a good friend is trustworthy. Trustworthy means that you can be trusted. Also that they can be trusted so they won't tell lies and get you into trouble. If they are trustworthy they would tell you the truth and not lie about being your friend. Also, if they were trustworthy they would not tell you lies about your friends doing that or that.

Second off, what makes a good friend is helpful. What helpful means that you would help anyone, your friends or a stranger. Also if they are helpful they will not go behind your back and not help you. But if they are helpful they will help you any time and comfort you. Also that they would help you with tough times and that you are frustrated.

Finally, what makes a good friend is if they are kind. Kindness or kind means having or showing a gentle nature and a desire to help others. If your friend is kind they will not hurt you mentally or physically. Instead they will help you and comfort you through tough times and they will help you with anything. Also that they will help you and then if you are kind to them they will be even more kind.

In conclusion, these are the reasons why trustworthy, helpful, and kind is what makes a good friend. Trustworthy means to be trusted, helpful means helping others, and kind showing a gentle nature and a desire to help. Also this is why these attributes make a good friend because they won't, they won't go behind your back, and hurt you. And this is what makes a good friend.

Keeping a Friendship Healthy

By Olivia Cottongim

"Find a weirdo just like you and never let them go". This quote was found in Darlings Quotes. When you become friends with somebody in this world you need to make sure they have good qualities and won't bring you down. Some qualities that I look for in a friend are Jesus like, makes me laugh, and encourages.

Now sometimes looking for the right friend can be hard. When I become friends with someone it takes a little while because sometimes when you hang out with someone for a long you can see that they're not your type. The most important quality to me is respecting Jesus now that's the hardest thing to find in a friend because sometimes people say that there a christian but they don't act like it. You also need to make sure your friend will not bring you down but instead lift you up. Also when you become friends with somebody you don't have to have everything in common.

In conclusion, remember to look for the right qualities in a person that you would want. However sometimes friends fight and that happens in every friendship and all you need is a little break from each and you will become friends again.

What are Good Friends?

By Owen Napier

In Proverbs 17:17 it says "A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." What that verse means is that a good friend loves you no matter what. Being born with adversity means that when bad times come, a good friend will become as close as a brother or a sister. Also, a good friend builds you up not brings you down.

First, good friends are loyal, fun and share something in common. They often bring out the best in each other by spending time together praying, playing games and doing homework together. A true friend is based on love that is not our definition of love, but should be based on God's definition of love. God's love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant (1 Corinthians 13:4). When doing homework a good friend will not say "I'M DONE BEFORE YOU!", they will say "do you need help with your homework?".

Lastly, it is hard for me to single out any of my best friends because they are all very good friends to me and they have all the qualities of a good friend. My goal is to be a good friend by putting the needs of my friends before mine. If we all have the qualities of a "Good Friend", then together we will have a better relationship with each other and a better world.

By Reece Franey

Everyone has once asked themselves, am I being a good friend? There's a problem with that though, there is nothing that tells you if you're being a good friend. That's why I put this list together of what makes a good friend to help you be a better friend.

The absolute first trait that makes a good friend is if you're showing Jesus's love to them no matter what. If you're showing Jesus's love, then you'll never have to worry that you're not being a good friend. God is our best friend, so we can follow his example to show to others, which as a friend is the best thing you can do.

The second trait that makes a good friend is having integrity. In other words, being honest and not going behind their back and talking bad about them or lying to them. Nobody wants a friendship built on lies. You need integrity no matter what to be a good friend. If they know you have integrity, they will trust you more.

The third trait that makes a good friend is if you are a listener. Just think of every time someone didn't listen to you and how annoying it is. Just listening can sometimes be the best way to show that you care. Listening can also help show that you're taking in what they're saying, you have the same interests, and that you understand what they're saying.

In conclusion, if you are ever again asking yourself the question, am I being a good friend, you can ask yourself these 3 questions. Am I showing Jesus's love, am I being honest and having integrity, and am I being a good listener. This helped me with being a good friend and I hope it will help you too. Our friends help us through tough times, so let's help them out too.

By Reese Finity

Ecclesiastes 4:10 - "If either of them falls down, one can help the other up." That is one way that makes a good friend. There are many qualities that make a good friend, but here are some that I think are the most important out of all of them.

Friends are important, and they need to have good qualities. Good friends are loyal, and they help their friends when they need it. Friends are fun, and they will make you laugh if you aren't feeling good. Oftentimes, friends have things in common with each other, and that is why they are good friends. Friends are supportive and they are there for you in hard times.

These are the reasons that I think are the most important for good friends. They are loyal, fun, supportive, and share something in common with you. Friends play a big role in our lives, so have good friends and make sure that you are a good friend, too!

What Makes a Good Friend

By Ryder Chastain

"A friend is like a 4 leaf clover: hard to find a lucky to have." Quote by Irish Proverb. Today I am going to be talking about what makes a good friend. The three things I believe makes a great friend is a friend who hangs out with you a lot, a friend who has things in common with you, and a friend who you do not argue a lot with.

First of all, I believe that a good friend should hang out with you a lot because if they don't hang out with you too often, you will not get to know them well and that friendship will not go anywhere. Also, if they do not hang out with you, you're gonna hang out with your other friends, and leave your other friend in the dust.

Second of all, I believe something that makes a good friend is when they have something in common with you. If you and your friend have something in common, you can get along better and know each other better. Also, if you guys have something in common, you can easily do something you both like.

Third of all, and probably the most important of all, a friend that does not argue with you a lot is a NEED for a good friend. You want a friend you do not argue with a lot because if you argue with them a lot, you are gonna break that friendship and ruin it all. Also, if they argue with you, you will feel really sad, maybe angry, and that is not what good friends do.

In conclusion, if you want to make a good friend, look for those attributes. Now remember, what makes a good friend is a friend who hangs out with you a lot, a friend who has things in common with you and a friend who does not argue with you a lot. Now what are you doing, go make a new friend!

What makes a good friend?

By Uriah Kraus

First, one Bible verse that talks about what makes a good friend is John 15:12-15." My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command."

Second, a good friend is someone who you can trust. I know this because if you need to tell your friend something important that only they can know and they tell other people. You should not tell them more secrets and if they are really your friend they would not do that.

Third, another thing that makes a good friend is if they are kind to you. I know this because if you have a friend that keeps telling you you're annoying ,you look terrible, you're ugly. I suggest you should not hang out with them but, don't yell and be rude about it, just say if you're going to be rude, mean, or discouraging I don't want to be friends.

Fourth, one friend that I think has these qualities is my best friend Daniel. He is not rude, he is kind to me and other people. Also he is someone I can trust if I tell him something that I don't want other people to know like say a surprise party for someone, he is not going to tell other people about it. Also he is helpful. If I need help with something he will help me and if he needs help with something I would help him.

Lastly , a friend is someone you can trust and talk to. A friend is also someone that is kind to you and makes you smile. Another quality a friend has is, if they help you when you are in tough times. To end with a friend is kind, trustworthy, someone who helps you, and someone who you can talk to.

What makes a good friend

By Aiden Kidwell

"Things are never quite as scary when you got a best friend", Bill Watterson. A good friend is someone who trusts you and does not forsake you. For something better

First of all I think that a good friend would be nice and trustworthy. Because a friend that is trustworthy can help you in lots of situations. Like helping you study, can be trusted with your valuables, and will be nice to other friends.

Second of all, people say that they do not let their untrustworthy friends take things or borrow things like money, computers, and chargers. Some people do but do not get it back and they have to get a new one.

conclisen, some people let people borrow their validols and they say they get it back from friends and they do not have to ask for it back. Sometimes this is true but most of the time they can not give it back.

What Makes A Friend

By William Mcpherson

"One who has unreliable friends soon comes to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother proverbs 18:24." I believe a good friend is someone who is loyal and kind

Someone you can trust, someone who builds you up and not tears you down.

I think this because I have friends and I have had friends. I know what makes a good friend and someone who does not. If you call someone who hits you your friend you might be wrong. But a friend who respects you and someone that you respect and trust. If your friend doesn't trust you you may be wrong about your friend of course everyone deserves a second chance and the bible says that we need to give each other infinite chances.

You also need to be careful about what you say.

In conclusion these are the things that make a good friend building each other up in loyalty and kindness. And someone you can build up, someone you can be kind to someone you can help. e to remember that a good friend is also made by you. If you decide to tear each other down, your friend will also tear you down. If you build each other up you will have a better relationship a friend

By Eden Bauschek

My favorite TV show is Free Rein. This show has inspired me because I do horseback riding, and this show inspired me by doing more showjumping, riding on a saddle every single time I ride, and knowing how to control the horse mostly. My favorite horse riding quote is, "For one to fly, one needs to take the reins." This quote helps me to remember that the horse does it's job and you do the rest and take the reins to guide the horse. Why it opened my eyes to new possibilities is because this television show made me do more horseback riding, and more cool tricks on horses. This TV show is mainly about how you have a strong bond between horses and your human self.

First of all, there is a girl named Zoe, and she has a sister named Rosie. Then, her horse is named Raven. She was born in L.A., and she moved down to England where her Grandpa lives right next to a horse stable. Zoe came to the stable the next day and explored a little bit around the stable, and then she saw this boy named Ben, and he was exercising Raven. That is when Zoe met Raven. Then, Ben was girlfriend and boyfriend with Zoe. But, her Mom wanted to move back to L.A. But, Zoe refused because she would have to leave her beloved horse, Raven and Ben. So she stayed with her Grandpa, and her friends at the stable.

Second of all, Zoe missed her Mom, but Zoe had to stay for Raven, or else he would be sent to a Derby stadium where he will be a Derby horse. So, Zoe had to stay at the stables with her Grandpa. There is a Christmas series, a Valentine's Day series, and the Free Rein series which I am talking about. In conclusion, I think this TV show is a great show to watch. I think you should watch Free Rein too!

Lastly, I think you should watch Free Rein. it is an awesome series and I hope this information will help you understand this series.

Did you know that Non- traditional families are represented in the series.

My favorite TV show is Raven's Home. It made me open my eyes because it is about a family living in an apartment living on a small budget just like me and my parents. There are five people living in the apartment: a mom named Raven: who has visions, twins named Nia and Booker: who also has visions, and then Raven's friend Chelsea and her son Levi.

I like it because it is an everyday challenge trying to find out what the visions mean and they also have challenges like where their mom said no phones no makeup no dogs or animals. It also kind of goes with my life because one of the episodes said girls just want to have phones and well I have been wanting a phone for a long time now and well once I have one, my parents probably won't even let me have ten minutes of time to be on it. Anyway Raven's Home is probably not christ following videos or episodes but I like it and so do my friends and my family also approve of it.

In Conclusion, I like Raven's Home because it has a challenge and it also has a low budget just like me and my parents. It also goes well with my life. Me and my family and friends love Ravens' Home and like to watch it with me. Although it probably isn't christ following it still is a good show to watch.

Did you know that the show Victorious was made 12 years ago. The show Victorious is my favorite show. It was put on Nickelodeon March 27, 2010. It is my favorite TV show because it is funny and has a lot of famous singers in it. It is about a group of friends who go to a school called Hollywood Arts and while every pass they have more and more drama. To start things off, this TV show has a lot of drama. It is a musical and has a lot of things that go on like singing shows. This show mainly has drama and musicals. As this show has a lot of musicals it also has a lot of humor and sarcasm.

Next, this show is about a group of high schoolers that have drama every day of their lives. For example, once in the show on the first episode Tori's sister, Trina had a big show but her tongue got all swollen up so that's when her younger sister Tori had to take in action and sing instead of her sister. Lastly, this show is my favorite because it has a lot of humor and has several singers in it. I like to watch this show because it has a lot of musical things that go on and I love music. This show has a lot of life lessons also. These life lessons teach you about things that you should do and shouldn't.

In conclusion, I think this show is the best show ever because of the humor and musicals. As others may have other opinions on what show is the best I think this show is the best. If I were you I would watch this show because of all the wild things that go on. As I said this show contains a lot of humor so I would suggest watching it.

Did you know that the show Victorious has been on Netflix for three years? The show Victorious is my favorite show. It has a lot of drama and musicals. It has a lot of humor and a lot more interesting things involved in it.

To start things off, this show has a lot of drama, musicals, humor, and more involved in it. This show is about a group of friends who have lots of drama but also have great gifts. In this show they have a lot of drama that brings along humor. For example, on the first episode of Victorious the main character, Tori had to take over her sister Trina's show because Trina got a swollen tongue and couldn't sing. This brought a lot of drama but humor.

Lastly, I love this show because it has a lot of humor and has a lot of musicals. The humor that is in it is normally coming out of the mouths of the main characters. This show is amazing in all ways, and that's because of the actresses in it, the drama, the musicals, and the humor. In conclusion, this show is my favorite show and I would suggest watching it because of the humor, the actresses, the musicals, and the drama. This show is amazing in all ways, so I hope you're interested in watching it.

The TV Show I like the best!

By Josephine Lalnunmawii

Do you know that Captain Underpants won the Disney Adventures choice award on April, 4, 2006. Also Captain Underpants are perfect for young readers you can also read Captain Underpants books and watch the movie and watch it on Netflix now. Here I'm gonna be telling you the reasons why I like Captain Underpants.

My Favorite TV Show is Captain Underpants. My first reason why I like the show Captain Underpants because this show is about two boys named George Beard and Harold Hutchin they go to a school with each other and they have this one principle that is always mad most of the time his name is Mr. Krupp he is mostly mad at the two boys most of the time and then during the meantime there is a superhero named Captain Underpants he goes out and save the world the two boys noticed him and started seeing him most of the time.

My second reason why I like the show Captain Underpants is because it is pretty funny and it is kind of like a comedy thing. I also like how this story is about saving people and helping and it has a funny part in this show. This show is pretty much a very energetic show. Also I like how this show has a lot of fun stuff that can get kids to express themselves.

My third reason why I like the show Captain Underpants is because this show has a lot of colors and this show is very creative because the main character Captain Underpants does not really look like any normal super hero even though he has a cape and some superheroes do too. But not that many superheroes don't wear underpants and go out to save the world like that, so I'm guessing the creator of Captain Underpants likes to be very creative and express himself.

In conclusion, those are pretty much all of my reasons for why I like Captain Underpants TV Show the best and also you should make other kids watch it too. It's pretty funny.

My favorite TV show

First, my favorite TV show is an Anime called Attack on Titan. This show is very awe-inspiring and breathtaking. The plot is that it is set in a world where humanity lives inside cities surrounded by three enormous walls that protect them from Gigantic man eating humanoids referred to as Titans; the story follows Eren Yeager, who vows to exterminate the titans after the Titans bring around the destruction of his hometown and the death of his mother. What I learned from this series theme is the need to never give up and keep on fighting in the face of adversity. This theme of resilience in face of adversity matters so much in life with almost everything and it has way more themes such as leave no man behind this can teach important lessons.

Next, there are many other reasons that I like this show 1. It has some of the best character development of all time. This is shown through the way they portray all the characters including females. The women of this are so fierce and so graceful, they are literally a sight to behold. Typical shonen anime depict their females in a crude way but Attack on Titan did absolute justice to its female characters. But most of all, one of the best storylines ever in my opinion is as easy to understand as it is good. Our main character goes through many phases in his life but the most important thing is he can turn into a Titan and not a mindless one but he can control it which leads to the misadventures of Eren and his friends

In conclusion, this show is undoubtedly my favorite show. It has lovely characters and a storyline with new episodes coming every week. The graphics in this show are amazing and the writers have outdone themselves many times and continue to do so With beautiful scenes and details. Lets not forget either that the Titans are also extraordinary and also powerful.

A popular show also demands lovable characters and Attack on Titan has them so in all this is one of favorite animes ever! This show will undoubtedly show undoubtedly go down in history as one of the best shows in history.

What show do I like? I think Popee the Performer gave me a lesson because it showed how not to be a clown show because they can make big mistakes when you work as a Performer that result in death, though it's from japan, it still counts as a show, It opened my eyes because working as a clown takes a lot of practice, also when you fail, chances are that you might die and will lead to death. So that's why it takes lots and lots of work and practice to put into it, though the show may be funny, but I can also be kinda gory as you continue watching. I like this show because of how funny it is. Despite their teenage years ,some of the funny jokes are no longer funny, and the show was about poppe, and his co-worker who works with him, as the show continues ,we get introduced to his dad, it is unknown about his mother if she's dead or not ,the more they continue, the more they get to work together This is why I love this show ,because it may be gorey, it can also teach some lessons of mistakes ! Also, it showed that mistakes can be a learning process, so that's why I like this show!

Did you know that the television was made in 1927 by a fifteen year old? When the boy first invented it you used to be able to only watch pictures and now there are millions of things to watch like Netflix and Hulu. Now let me tell you about my favorite television show which is The Last Kids on Earth.

This is my favorite television show because it inspired me to go out exploring and survive. This television show is about four kids who are the only people left in their town with a lot of zombies and they are trying to find where the zombies are coming from so they can stop them and that way they can have a normal city again. This is my favorite television show because it has flesh eating zombies that won't stop until they win, it has a good storyline, it has funny people, and it is a mystery for what is going to happen next.

This is what my favorite television show was and why I like it and again it is The Last Kids on Earth. This television show is also a book with a different storyline. I hope you enjoyed hearing about my favorite television show, and you should watch it too.

A good friend is very kind and they are nice. I play with my friends at recess. We play tag. Sometimes I swing on the swings with Presley. I play with Betty outside, too. She is nice to everyone and smiles a lot. Presley is really nice and she always makes me laugh. When we do indoor recess we usually play together. Most of the time we get on PBS Kids and do fun games together. I am nice to everyone and if they need help I help them. If someone is feeling sad, I go to them and talk to them and then listen to them. If you listen to people it will make them happy because it shows them they are important.

I don't watch a lot of TV, but I do watch movies. My favorite movie is The Sandlot because I like baseball. The Sandlot is about a bunch of friends who play baseball all the time. I like when they hit it over the fence and when they say, "forever" a bunch of times. I really like the whole movie. My friend Jack and my little brother Grant like it, too. I think everyone will like this movie.

My favorite TV show is Garfield. It's about this cat that fights with a dog and a human. The cat likes to sit and watch TV all day. Jon is the human, and sometimes they go to visit his brother Doc at the farm. His real name is Doc, but Jon calls him Doc Boy. My favorite character is Garfield because he likes playing tricks on Odie the dog. Nermal is a gray cat and sometimes Garfield is mean to Nermal.

My favorite TV show is The Ninja Turtles. My favorite turtle is Michelangelo because he's cool. He wears orange. He is the funny one. It has a lot of details and there are a lot of movies. My favorite part is when they save the day by stopping the bad guys. Michelangelo does this move where he spins really fast on his shell and then his brothers push him and he knocks down the bad guys. Turtle Power!

My favorite TV show is Pokemon. Pokemon is about these really cool creatures that have different abilities and people catch them with Pokeballs. My favorite Pokemon are Charizard and Blastoise. Charizard is a fire-type Pokemon. He does a lot of fire attacks and sometimes dragon attacks because he is a fire dragon. Blastoise is a water-type Pokemon. He has a giant shell that protects him. His shell has two giant squirt cannons on his back and he uses them to protect. I like collecting Pokemon cards. I have a lot of them, but I'm still hunting for one specific Charizard card. It's the Charizard EX or V-Max card. It's really hard to find because everyone one is looking for them. Gotta Catch 'Em All!

My favorite TV show is Spongebob Square Pants. It's about Spongebob and his friend Patrick. They go to different places. Spongebob works at the Krusty Crab with Squidward. Squidward doesn't like Spongebob and Patrick. There are two shows with him on it. I have two favorite characters, Spongebob and Patrick. I like that Spongebob is always so kind to everyone in Bikini Bottom. I like how Patrick is very silly and funny. I think everyone would like to see this show!

Good Friends Can Be Animals

By Mang Dohn

There was a cat name Littie, a dog named Liffy, and a wolf named Loffy, and also a bunny named Lunny. Even though they were all different animals, they were great friends. They loved being around humans and animals. They always played and did crafts together. They would play hide and seek. Some of them could turn invisible because they had magic, but they didn't brag about it because good friends don't brag. They were kind and would do everything to help others. Good friends don't have to be the same, they can be different. You can be friends with anyone who is kind and treats you nicely.

My favorite TV series is Spongebob Squarepants. It is my favorite show because it is funny and interesting. It is a show about loyal friends and teaches me to be kind. It shows me not to show off and be mean to others. The main character shows how to be a good friend and not to bully people. I think everyone will like to watch this show!

My Stange Addiction

My favorite T.V. show is My Strange Addiction. I like this T.V. show because it has many different things that make those people who they are. It shows that no matter who or what they like, they are themselves. And they aren't ashamed because of it. I feel this shows that no one should judge you by who or what you like. Mainly because you are who you are. Not anyone else. Each of us is unique and different. This is why I like this T.V. show.

Good Friends

By Layla Phelps

A good friend is someone like Alice and Nolan. They are good friends because they are true-hearted, waggish, comprehensible, and you can count on them to keep your secrets. I think a good friend should definitely have all of these qualities. Alice, Nolan, and I do many things together like play basketball at recess, Facetime, work collaboratively in groups at school, play in groups in the gym, go to the park together, and tell jokes to one another. I think Nolan Rockey and Alice Padgett are the true definition of a good friend.

Good Friends

By Ashlyn Smith

What are good friends? Good friends are people that you hang out with, can talk to, and who listen to you. A friend is loyal, kind, fun, and shares something in common with you. What are things you can do with your friends? There are a lot of things that you can do with them. A few examples are sleepovers, eating at restaurants, or going to public places together like a pool or store. Why should I have good friends? Some reasons to have good friends is so you can have someone to talk to/do stuff with you when you're bored. Also, a good friend is someone you can count on.

My Favorite Show

By Emmanuel Davis

Raising Dion is my favorite show because Dion is a seven year old with super powers. His father recently drowned and his mother is grieving while trying to figure out Dion. This show opened my eyes because it showed me kids can be the heroes as well as the adults. This show made me laugh when Dion's telekinesis slapped a bully when they stole his dad's watch. My favorite part was when Dion was walking with a man made of lightning.

My Favorite Show

By Katherine Napier

My favorite TV show is "Series of Unfortunate Events." It is about three siblings. Violet, Klaus, and Sunny, and their parents that passed in a house fire. They go from guardian to guardian all while a man named Count Olaf, the guardian Mr. Poe sent them to, is trying to get their fortune that was passed down to Violet. However, she will not see the money until she is of age. They are trying to tell everyone about how Count Olaf is treating them, and how he only wants the family's fortune. Olaf treats them poorly, making them do everything, and only giving them one, small bed to share. He treats the siblings almost like servants. At one point, he almost eats the youngest child, Sunny. Season 2 features the 3 kids at a school called "Prufrock Preparatory School."

The principal treats them differently, too. While everyone else gets a very nice, clean dorm, the siblings get a crab-infested shack.

While they are there, they meet 2 siblings that also lost their parents in a house fire. They also lost their other sibling. The groups have many connections and have a lot in common. I highly recommend watching this if you like mysteries.

Becoming Friends
By Maggie Kern
When I think of the word friends it makes me think of four things. Kindness, care, respect, and honesty. These things make a good friend at least I think they do. When I make friends I want honesty because I can trust them right. I look for care because care for one another is important. I look for respect because respecting one another helps with bonding, and kindness because if your mean you could hurt others in a sad way. But the best part about having friends is they do not have to be a certain person, like they could be your cousin or classmate they don't even have to be your age they could be your teacher or your neighbor. They could also be a penpal from far away, and of course they could be an animal or pet, brother or sister. It doesn't matter who or what your friend is, it matters about your friendship. The thing about friends is it does not always stay happy and agreeable. Sometimes great friends have arguments, but that is ok. Sometimes just taking time away and thinking of your friend will help. This happens every now and then, but you always get back together after a while. In Fact this helps some with bonding. When you have a friend you have so many ups and downs. Arguments and joyful memories, and that is what is so great about friends.

My favorite television show is called Family Reunion. It is a series on Netflix. It is a sitcom. Family Reunion is a show about a family that moves from Seattle to Columbus, Georgia because the dad retired from the NFL. They reunite with their grandparents. They then decide to live closer to their family. The family has to adapt to the changes that come with living in Georgia. The family then spends too much of their fortune so they become broke but their family does not give up on them and helps them.

I like Family Reunion because each character has his or her own personality. The characters all have funny lines. The show also deals with important issues such as racism and sexism. It is also based on a true story so everything that happens in the show can happen to real life people.

All in all, Family Reunion is my favorite television show because of many reasons. It is funny, it deals with real life situations, and it shows that family will stick by your side. I hope that people enjoy Family Reunion as well.

By Fernando Uribe

My favorite childhood show is Tom and Jerry. Tom and Jerry was a show that was made in the 1950's. This show was on air for over 4 decades. Even though it was an old show, it was extremely popular through many generations. After it was released, audiences thought it was a very entertaining cartoon.

This show was so popular that it won 7 Oscars and was nominated 13 times. This show is about a up and down relationship between a cat and a mouse. Sometimes they are nice to each other and other times they are mean to each other. I personally think this show is a very good show because any generation can watch it and easily understand Tom and Jerry's behavior. I also think the show is good for the younger audience because it engages them and keeps them wanting more of the silly adventures.

In many scenes Tom continues to chase Jerry over and over without giving up. In the end this show inspired me to never give up even if it's the silliest things. I'm sure it also helped other viewers in the same capacity and if not they got many memories full of laughter.

My Favorite tv show

By Mary Springer

There are alot of funny shows out there, so how did I choose my own personal favorite? Well, I love the tv show "henry danger" because it has a lot of seasons, they have the Continued... happen after the beautiful drama, and they have the original story line and idea from scratch (Originality).

You all know covid keeps us inside more and away from the movie theaters or stores with tv show seasons, so we have to watch out shows on the tv, but by now you're probably trying to search for a show you haven't watched! And with all those seasons, you won't have to search for good entertainment for quite a while.

With the back-to-back drama, like romance, oops moments, and phrases said in battles, you'll feel better LOL your rough day out!

And I love their originality the most, like the rhymes, battles, and just chillin 'out (then someone has an oops moment). It has its own storyline too, but I won't tell you spoilers(because you need to watch it yourself), instead I'll tell you that there are 2 other series like it, keeping the time, drama, and originality all together (adventure of kid danger and danger force).

Thank you for reading my favorite movie and hope you have a nice day!

My favorite TV show

Hi. My name is Owen. My favorite TV show that inspires me is "Adventure Time." This inspires me because they never give up and don't quit on their dreams. The main characters are Finn and Jake. Finn is a human and Jake is a dog that can transform. They slay monsters but sometimes they get hurt but don't give up. They go on long adventures. Sometimes they make friends with monsters they meet. They meet a lot of people on their adventures. They know a lot of people but some people also don't like them. So I chose "Adventure Time" because it tells me to never give up on my dreams and don't give up on hard times. One time I had a math test and I was struggling. I had to make a guess and I got it right. They also have monsters that said they were bad people. But then Finn and Jake helped the monster. So I learned to never judge a book by its cover. It inspired me to never be mean to people if they are mean to me.

Veggie tales It inspired me so much when I was a little kid! Ohhh, the memories, such a good show. It inspired me to be a good kid around everybody, especially in public. I always used to act like I was the Cucumber, walking around, looking like I was the happiest kid on earth, and humming through the town. My parents thought it was so funny.

They said since I ACT like the Cucumber so much I might TURN INTO a cucumber. I always said, "AHH! Oh-tay! I'll stop." They got me every time with that joke. But yet again, the next day I would forget about it and do it all over again.

My favorite episode was probably the one with the monster truck and the gas dude. I thought it was so funny when they drove through the city all crazy. Especially when they crashed into the stop sign and the Tomato went, "AHHH!"

Did you know they also made a kids bible? I used to read it every night. Looking at the characters while I was reading just made it more fun and joyful. They were always doing an activity too, which made it even MORE fun to read.

That's about all I've got for you guys. See ya!

A Loyal Friend

By Eli Z.

Fourth grade

One of my most loyal friends is Autry T. We became good friends right away when we met in kindergarten. We have a lot in common. We both love baseball, basketball, and the outdoors. We have been in the same class every year all throughout elementary school.

He is loyal to me because he is always there for me no matter what and willing to help out whenever I need it. For example, when our baseball coach needed me to fill in as a catcher, I thought, "Oh no, I have barely ever caught before!" In between games, Autry spent his time giving me pointers on how to be a good catcher. I really appreciated his help because he could have taken that time to eat, rest, or hang out with his other friends and left me to figure it out on my own, which I wouldn't have been able to do in time for the game.

Autry, also stands up for me a lot. When somebody tries to put me down or make fun of me, I know Autry will be there to help me out. He always tells me "Buds always have each other's back" and also always says "Friends of five, never die."

He also makes me feel comfortable being myself and I don't have to try to be cool and be a person that I am not.

Autry is always there to make me feel better if I am sad. He can always make me laugh too. When I strike out in a baseball game, Autry is always there to cheer me up. These are all the reasons why Autry is such a loyal friend to me. I hope I can be just as good of a friend to others as he is to me.

My favorite TV show is Alexa and Katie. It is about two girls who are best friends and Alexa has cancer. Her family tries to keep her safe but all she wants to do is have fun. When it's almost time for school she gets nervous and sad because she will not be able to play basketball. When she gets there no one knows that she has cancer because she tries to hide it. A couple days later everyone found out that Alexa had cancer and Alexa did not like it because she wants to be treated normally. It inspired me because even though you have something different about you, it does not mean you are weird, you are just unique. No matter what you have wrong with you, you will always be special. That is how the show Alexa and Katie inspires me.

One thing that makes me unique is When I first started basketball I was almost the only one that hadn't played before! Felt embarrassed because I wasn't even good at it. Eventually I got better and I felt as confident as all the other girl's. It inspires me to like my uniqueness and be proud of myself. That is why I like Alexa and Katie.

I am writing about my favorite TV show. It is called SportsCenter on ESPN. I watch it everyday. It inspires me to play baseball so I can get on the Sports Center top ten. When I hopefully play in the MLB. I want to 1 day see myself making a Derek Jeter flip against the Oakland A's. It inspires me to try hard to try my best every time I am on the field. It is cool to watch professional athletes make the top ten. I can see things to help my game.

I can also watch MLB tonight that talks about baseball teams. Sports Center is a great thing to watch if you like sports. It covers all of the professional sports. I like to watch basketball and I can watch any sports or just replays. If I do not watch the games I can see it on Sports Center. It inspires me to do anything because 1 day I may play in the major leagues. I like to watch it with my brother and dad. We talk about plays people make on there. My favorite player to watch is Arron Judge. It inspires me to play baseball or any sport!

I can make something cool on Sports Center. I like making my own game outside where I act like I make a top ten play. I like to try my hardest and act like I have one home run and hit 2 more. I play basketball and it helps me watch players and get out and practice like them! It helps me see mistakes and not do them while I play outside in the game. I think Sports Center is a great TV show to watch if you like to watch sports.

My favorite television show is MLB (major league baseball). It is my favorite show because I like to watch the MLB players make spectacular plays. I also like it because it inspired me to play baseball at a young age. It has been my favorite sport since t-ball. It also inspired me to be on a travel team and get better. In 7-u we won 1 game but in 8-u we won the single-a state championship! I hit a walk off single to win it. We got these 10 pound belts that say state champions. When I grow up I want to be a MLB player and play for the Cincinnati Reds. My position is 1st base and I want it to stay that way. I like playing baseball, it is going to be my favorite sport forever. The MLB game that inspired me the most was Padres vs Nationals and the Padres relief pitcher was hitting and he hit a grand slam as his first ever career hit. That taught me just because you're against arguably the best pitcher in the MLB and you just started playing MLB you can do anything you put your mind to.

By Susan C.

I have had many friends before but not one like Abby. Abby is kind, crazy, silly, funny, and adventurous. I think she is the perfect match for me. A good friend is someone who always has your back no matter what. They will always be there for you if you are nervous. If you get hurt, they will help you up. They are someone who makes you drop down laughing. They will also make you happy when you are sad and help you when you are struggling with something.

And if real friends fight they can still stay friends. Me and Abby fight a lot, but of course we are still best friends. Another example of a good friend is when we had to do a project and we had to learn about different people. Abby wanted to get a certain one and so did I and she gave me her book and she got a different one. Or when I forgot to bring my snack to school and she shared hers with me. Also our essays are probably going to be alike because we have the same stories to tell. That is one of the reasons why she is my best friend.

I have also had lots of fake friends before. They are the ones that go and hang out with other people and then ask you for a favor. They are the ones that use you for things. My actual friends never do those things and I am very thankful for them. Sometimes it can be hard to lose a friend, but I would rather have one or two really good and nice friends than have eight or ten really mean, fake friends because then I would have a lot more fun. I am glad that Abby is in my life.

My favorite TV show is LEGO Avengers. It has a lot of episodes to keep me watching forever and it has a lot of action to keep me interested. There are also a variety of people and I don't have to just pick one character to be my favorite. Instead I can have multiple characters that I love. There are also multiple Avengers video games that I have that let me unlock both superheroes and villains so I don't just have to be one or the other. When I finish the whole show I will start watching all of the regular Avengers shows because Avengers is my favorite. It is the best show ever. So that's why I always watch this show and will watch it forever.

This show teaches me to not give up and always work hard. Some superheroes try to give up they they all have each other to work together and back each other up. It also inspired me to help people in need because superheroes protect the whole world. If someone is getting bullied I will stand up for them. If my Papaw and Mamaw need sticks picked up in the backyard I will do that and other chores for them. If someone wants to play a game with me I will invite them to play. Those are the things I would do to help people.

I don't know what I would do if I was blind. In the show Heartland a girl named Amy Fleming worked with problemed horses, and one of the horses kicked her in the back of her head and she went blind. They found out it was just a temporary blind, she got better because her family was with her. Then she continued working with horses. So what inspired me was to never give up and push through hard times. One time when I went through a hard time was when my papa passed away. But just like Amy I had my family with me. One Easter, after my papa passed away my Nana made me this little pillow out of his shirt that helped a lot. Sometimes when I spend the night at my Nana's house on his side of the bed he had a drawer so I look through it. So because Amy had people with her in a hard time, it made it hurt a little less in both stories. Amy has been hurt a lot but she never gives up. She didn't even give up when she was having a baby. Amy's mom passed away but she didn't give up there she kept working. Later on she found out her mom had a journal that helped her because it had stuff like how to make medicines for horses. Like her, I had something from a loved one to get me through my hard time. Amy the show Heartland never gives up . So she inspired me to never give up.

What Makes A Good Friend?

By Abby C.

Third grade 9 yrs old

So a good friend always has your back and will never leave you, and they will compliment you, never make fun of you, bully you, or body shame you. A good friend helps you up when you fall or you get hurt. Also I forgot my snack one time and she shared. Plus if your friend realizes you have a fake friend or realizes they are using you they will be a good friend and tell you they are using you/being a fake friend. They will also make you feel loved and make you feel better when you are sad, and they will never let you cry.

If you are struggling with homework they will help you out. I have a good friend and her name is Susan and the reason she is a good friend is that she is trustworthy, loyal, kind, caring, and makes me feel like I am loved and special. Also, we make jokes a lot and we just get along with each other very well. The reason we get along just right is because we always hang out, realize who is a fake friend, talk, call, play together, realize if someone is trying to break our friendship apart, and notice if someone is trying to steal one of our friends. But sometimes our friendship is not always sunshine and roses, we sometimes get into fights but sooner or later we make up and we always stay best friends forever. And that is what makes a good friend

What makes a friend

I think that a best friend should be somebody you trust. I trust my friend Kenzie. My friend Kenzie is like a sister to me. She lets me borrow one of her books if I need one. Also, if I am sad she makes me happy. If I fall then she will help me. She also is funny and tells me a lot of jokes. We also never break each other's promises.

If you have a friend and they are nice to you then you should be nice to them. Also, you shouldn't hit your friend or call them names. They shouldn't call you names or hit you either. If they hit you and do stuff like that, then they are not a good friend. That's what I think a good friend should act like.

"Aren't you too young to write in a newspaper?" The adults in the show Phineas and Ferb say things like this a lot because Phineas and Ferb are kids and the grown ups are always saying they can't do something because they are too young but I know that's not true. One thing I've learned when I watch Phineas and Ferb is that I'm never too young to do anything. I can do anything if I set my mind to it. Like how I started school early a lot of the kids in my class in kindergarten thought I wasn't as smart as them. But now in 4th grade, I'm in High Ability! So I know I can do anything.

Phineas and Ferb are always going on cool adventures and creating new inventions. It inspires me to be adventurous. One place they went that I really want to go to is Paris, France! I especially want to see the Eiffel Tower. It would be incredible to see. So if they can set their mind to something and are able to do it then so can I! I think that's really cool how they make stuff. I really like making stuff too, but if I do make something cool it falls apart quickly! I'm also a little like Phineas and Ferb's sister. Her name is Candice. Mostly because she gets mad at them alot and I get mad at my brothers sometimes too! ;,;. Even though they have big fights at the end they end up getting along and that's how I am with my brothers. Candice inspires me to be a good big sister!

I learned something and was inspired by Phineas and Ferb and also Candice. I'm a good big sister and I'm never too young to do ANYTHING!!

If you have a friend they will think the same about you. If you don't have a friend ... well it is simple to get one. Just be kind to them and treat them the way you want them to treat you. It is fun to get to know friends. Cash's favorite color is actually purple I discovered. We both play soccer together. That is why you should get a friend.

My favorite TV show that inspires me is Nailed ft. Nailed It is an adult baking show with two rounds. The first round the bakers do a small cake or cupcake. You have a time limit and sometimes it is very bad. If you win this round you get a baking set and a golden cooking hat that you wear. The second round, you have to make a professional cake. If you win that round you win 20,000 dollars. This show has inspired me in four ways. One, even though it is bad it is good in some way. Two, never give up, you always have a chance if you try hard. Three, it is always ok to have some fun, just be you. Four, don't judge a book by its cover.

In Nailed It an example of even though it is bad it is good in some way is one baker had a very sloppy cake but when they tried it, it tasted so good. Also, in my life, I built a snowman and it looked very bad but it was the longest lasting one.

The never give up example is that 3 bakers had a ton left to finish with only 30 minutes left. They got it done and won! I had a situation like that too, I started a KiwiCo crate and I saw it was very hard. I did it with a little help and it looks so cool!

An example for just having fun, be you is that in one episode there was a food fight and it was funny. I am crazy and do a lot of fun stuff to make my friends crack a laugh.

On don't judge a book by its cover, there was a time where it was like a bloop of stuff but when they tried it it tasted so good. I was going to read a book but the cover did not look good but my mom made me read it and it was my favorite book.

That is why Nailed It is a good TV show.

Fourth grade

My favorite TV show is Sports Center. One reason I like it so much is because it has every single sport on it. It also has a variety of different segments, for example it has Top Ten, Web Gem, and MLB Tonight. I could list more but those are the things on the top of my head. My personal favorite is probably Top 10, but I like all of them. Top 10 shows the top 10 plays of the day.

Sometimes there are some pretty amazing plays. One time there was 3 seconds left in the football game and the team ran down to the end zone while the quarterback threw the ball in the air and hoped one of his teammates would catch it. The clock hit zero while the ball was in the air. Three of the defenders tipped the ball and one of the guys on the team caught the ball off the last tip and won the game! It was so exciting!

Sports Center inspired me to play baseball and basketball and continues to inspire me to practice. It makes me want to practice more and go harder in practice so I can be more like the players I watch on the show and hopefully become a professional player someday. When they interview the players, they talk about when they were young and how they became so good. This inspires me to work harder and never give up on my dreams. My favorite story I heard on Sports Center was about Michael Jordan getting cut from his high school basketball team. But he didn't stop practicing and eventually he became one of the best basketball players in the world.

To sum it up, my favorite show to watch is Sports Center. The show is fun to watch and it inspires me to work hard and practice more. Hopefully, one day I will be on Sports Center and making my dreams come true.

My favorite show

Mrs. Ericson

My favorite TV show (that I can remember) is Phineas and Ferb. While I do watch YouTube mostly, I do enjoy watching Phineas and Ferb. One of my favorite moments is on the last day of summer Phineas and Ferb movie, in this scene Phineas is showing them their last day of summer extravaganza in which Buford thinks they could make the invention better, and they did because that was only a fourth of the blue-print!

I love how this happens in every episode. "Aren't you a little young to be a (fill in the blank)" and that just tells you that even when you're young, you can still create something amazing that can make people happy and that can make dreams come true. Phineas and Ferb tells you and me that we can do anything. Phineas and Ferb are young creators and that's what inspired me to make Skyward Scraper my YouTube channel. I play Fortnite there, and to be honest when I started I was nervous and it felt weird to not actually be talking to someone, but Phineas and Ferb helped me be more social since they're being social every day. You could get inspired by your friends or your mom! Anything could inspire anyone! Your mom, your dad, your sibling, your grandpa, your cousin, or any relative of yours could inspire anyone, and the thing is that it doesn't have to be a relative. Like I said it really could be anyone. You could inspire someone yourself, and you can inspire a lot of things: a book, a movie, or a brand and those are just a few. Phineas gets inspired by Isabella. You can get inspired by anything if you just follow your curiosity or put your mind to it. Plus, Phineas and Ferb is a pretty amusing show, if you think about it Phineas and Ferb can really inspire anything, just like you.

3 Loyal Friends

By Eli E.

Third grade

I have 3 friends that whenever I feel bad they always ask what's wrong. When I fell over when I was running too fast outside and I fell they both helped me up. When we get mad at each other, Landon makes it funny and we are friends again. And they always are up for anything we say if we want to go try a different thing that might mess everything up, it's a risk we take. We also love to do comic books together, comes are always super fun. Whenever we need help with something we always help each other when I didn't understand something one time and they helped me understand. We are always willing to share with each other we always share markers or pencils with each other. And we always, no matter what or where we are, we always communicate. We are always able to get together and have a fun time. My 3 friends are Owen B., Henry H., and Landon J. and if I died early I would want someone lonely to be their friend because they make sure I am never lonely.

By Kianna Morales

My favorite TV show is Alexa and Katie. This TV show is about a girl with cancer and she has her best friend Katie that is always there for her. I love this TV show because in one episode Alexa starts to lose some hair for her medicine and tries to keep it a secret but when Katie finds out Katie ends up saving her hair to tell Alexa that it's okay and she is not alone.

Why this TV show is my favorite is because it is a really good TV show that shows good friendship. This show is a Netflix original and is a really good show. I rate it a five star Netflix original. This TV show will teach all kids of any age a nice valuable lesson of friendship, so if you have Netflix then sprint to your TV right now and watch Alexa and Katie.

If you do not have Netflix then ask your parents when you get home to get Netflix so you can watch a really good show that teaches how to be a great friend.

Supernatural: My Favorite TV Show

By Hayden Lickliter

My favorite TV show is a show called Supernatural. It's a show about two brothers, Sam and Dean Winchester and them fighting off monsters ranging from vampires, to ghouls, to demons, and even angels! Throughout the 15 seasons of the show things get more complicated as they go on.

In the first season the fight standard monsters and deal with curses while looking for their father and hunting down the demon who killed their mother Azazel. In the next season we find out that Sam was injected with demon blood as a child and was chosen by the demon Azazel trying to free Lucifer from his cage. Dean is however killed by Azazel which leads his father John to make a deal with Azazel Deans soul for his.

In the third season we find Azazel assembling an army of super soldiers all injected with demon blood Sam and a few other soldiers were kidnapped by Azazel and then they figured out its last one standing wins, after a while it turns to be Sam and another soldier. The soldier stabs Sam in the spinal cord and kills him winning the challenge and starts working with Azazel. At the end Dean sells his soul and gets one year left as Sam comes back to life.

They and their Uncle Bobby and their friend Ellen start hunting the soldier down and find him in an area surrounded by demons because their are churches that unite to form a devil's trap which traps demon so they can't get out. The soldier does Azazel's bidding and uses the colt (A gun that can kill any monster) to unlock Hell's Gates and free hundreds of demons while also breaking the devils trap. When Azazel attacks Dean John Winchester's spirit escapes hell and holds Azazel long enough for Dean to shoot him with the colt destroying the wretched demon. The soldier watches in shock as he realizes Sam is still alive he says that it was impossible because he ripped his spinal cord open. Sam catches on and remembers you can make deals. Sam looks at Dean specifically as he shoots the soldier many times.

In the next season Sam and Dean are taking a break from hunting Until they meet more hunters and they track down seven demons. Bobby warns them but they don't know why till he explains they are The Seven Deadly Sins. When they are fighting the demons they are onto the last one but he is strong then suddenly another demon appears, Ruby. She stabs the final demon through the back destroying him and leaving Sam speechless.

My Love for Pokemon

By Cody Ferguson

A TV show that inspired me is Pokemon. When I first watched it I thought wow I love this show. Now I have a lot of Pokémon cards and toys. When I grow up I want to build a Pokemon theme park. I want to have every Pokemon card in the world. I want to have every Lego figure of Pokemon one day. In Pokemon you can battle, you can trade cards and you can catch Pokemon. It is also a game for Nintendo and phones. It is also a card trading game. Pokemon is a fun game.

Good Friends

By Josiah Sang

What makes a good friend? What makes a good friend is that they are kind and they are nice to you, if you have a friend who likes to play with you and is kind you have a good friend you can also have a good friend if they are loyal and accept you for who you are during good and bad times. Good friends are also people who you know and are trustworthy, they believe in you most times and they are respectful to you.

Friends are good for comfort and for protection. You can also be a good friend by doing the same things as another good friend does.

Good friends are people who tell you when you are being bad and they listen to their other friends and sometimes they play with other people and their friends. A lot of good friends know how to stop a fight and stand up for other people. You should help people even if they are not your friend. Some friends don't have all of these qualities but that doesn't mean they aren't good friends, if you are also a good friend to your friends then they might become good friends too.

Some friends can be a better friend than you but you shouldn't get mad because you are also a good friend and you should try to be nice to people and people will call you a good friend. Those are the things that make a good friend. Any of those qualities is what makes you a good friend or someone else a good friend. I have a lot of good friends that I play with all the time and we play a lot together at recess, having a good friend is very fun.

A Good Friend

By Emma Bright

There are many qualities in a good friend. Many people look for different things in finding friends. Some look for someone to tell stories and information to, others look for someone to play with. When I look for a good friend, I look for someone who is loyal, and funny. Someone who I can trust, and will make me laugh. People see different things in a friend, just how we see a stick and birds see a home and how we see a bug, and fish see food.

While some people say look for someone who has things in common with you, I don't. One of my friends dances, and I don't like to dance at all. Another friend of mine plays basketball, but I do not like basketball. To add on to that we do not look like each other at all, but we are still friends. A true friend would put your differences aside, they should just love you for who you are.

Also a friend should stick with you, not just hang out with you once then just leave you. One time in third grade I was lonely, so I went two weeks not playing with anyone during recess. Until one day, I just decided to ask someone to play with me. I asked a girl named Addison, and she is still my friend to this day. A friend should always stick with you, and should never turn their back on you, like Addison. I asked her to play for one day, and we are still friends.

The top thing on my list to finding a good friend is to see if they are trustworthy. Sometimes you might tell a friend something that you don't want them to share. You have to trust that your friend will keep your secrets and always have your back. This goes to show that you want to have trustworthy friends.

If you ask me, a good friend is the one of the best things you can have in life.

They should be someone you can trust, someone that will stick with you, and someone who will put everyone's differences aside so you can be friends. Good friends are very important.
