OBITUARIES

EDINBURGH

Julianne Randolph Davis

Julianne Randolph was born to William and Marie (Melloan) Randolph on April 5, 1946. She was married to and built her life with William Davis, who survives.

Julie was a graduate of Needham School, Franklin Community High School and Franklin College. She began her work life in high school as a carhop at the Dog-n-Suds and retired as a certified public accountant. Her career began as the business director at Franklin College. She moved into private practice with local accounting firms before transitioning to corporate work with RCA/Thomson Electronics. Her work in customs management took her around the world. Later in life she joined her husband in managing the family businesses, primarily Challenge Plastic Products Inc.

Julie was elected to serve on the board of trustees for the Franklin Community School Corp. from 1983-1986 and was the president in 1985 and 1986.

Julie was an accomplished pianist and served several local churches in that capacity. She was a member of Grace Methodist Church in Franklin.

In recent years, Julie and her husband, Bill, enjoyed horse racing as a hobby with thoroughbred horses racing all around the country.

She was a devoted fan of the Indianapolis Colts and never missed a game.

Julie is survived by a brother, William Jeffrey Randolph, and two children, William Davis of Franklin and Anne Worden of New Orleans. She is also survived by a granddaughter, Leah Halcomb of Los Angeles. She was preceded in death by her beloved Labrador, Jake.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Indiana Chapter of the National MS Society.

A funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Andy Kinsey at Eskew-Eaton Funeral Home in Edinburgh. Burial was at Rest Haven Cemetery in Edinburgh.

COLUMBUS

Robert DeDomenic

Robert G. DeDomenic, 84, of Columbus, passed away Thursday March 3, 2022, at his home surrounded by his loving wife and children.

Bob was born in Pittsburgh, Pa. on April 1, 1937, to Geroge and Irene (Scott) DeDomenic, and grew up in the Penn Hills area of the city. He graduated from Central Catholic High School in 1955, and the University of Pittsburgh in 1960 with a degree in Business-Economics. On Jan. 3, 1959, Bob married Ellen Walsh of Wexford, Pa. and they enjoyed 63 wonderful years together.

After living in New York, Cambridge, Ohio, and Chicago, Bob and Ellen settled in Columbus, where Bob enjoyed a long and rewarding career as an investment advisor with Hilliard Lyons, where he was a first vice president before retiring in 2019. Through his work, Bob became a fixture on local radio, where he provided the daily stock market report before such things became available online.

Bob was a life-long Catholic and attended mass at St. Bartholomew in Columbus and St. Agnes in Nashville. He and Ellen traveled extensively during their marriage, visiting over 30 countries and a good deal of the United States. They shared this passion with their family, taking each of their grandchildren on a rafting and camping trip through the Grand Canyon. He was an avid reader, and volunteered time helping kids read at the public library in Columbus. Education was incredibly important to Bob, and he was particularly proud that all of his children and grandchildren earned college degrees, or are actively in the process of doing so. Bob was a huge fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers, never missing a game and (perhaps) personally willing them to a playoff berth this past season. He loved his secluded, wooded home at Harrison Lake, and greatly enjoyed wildlife there along with the exploits of his manx cat, Olive. He was a man of many interests - among them his classic Lincoln Continental, hiking, swimming, friends, and most of all family!

Bob is survived by his wife Ellen; a son, Scott Robert DeDomenic and his partner Wendy Korr of Edinburgh; daughters Susan (DeDomenic) Williams and her husband Ted of New Albany, and Julie (DeDomenic) Brunner and her husband John of Sidney, Ohio. Bob was known as Pappy to his eight grandchildren: Alex, Mike, Claire, Steven, Melanie, Christy, Angela and David, all of whom survive.

Bob is also survived by his sister Marlene (DeDomenic) Thomas and her husband Will of Monroeville, Pa.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Connie Lersch of Katy, Texas.

The Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Friday, March 11, 2022, at St. Bartholomew Catholic Church; the celebrant will be Father Chris Wadelton. A live stream of the Funeral Mass can be seen at saintbartholomew.org. Family and friends may gather for visitation from 9 a.m. until service time Friday at the church. Bob will be laid to rest in the Garland Brook Mausoleum

If you wish to make a donation in memory of Bob, please do so to the IU Simon

Cancer Center, c/o IU Foundation, P.O. Box 7072, Indianapolis, Indiana 46207-7072 (cancer.iu.edu/giving/memorial.php) or to local literacy through the Bartholomew County Public Library, 536 5th Street, Columbus, Indiana 47201 (mybcpl.org/friends).

Online condolences and special memories may be shared with the family and a video tribute may be viewed at barkesweaverglick.com.

FRANKLIN

Thomas Hamilton

Thomas Lee Hamilton, 81, of Franklin, passed away peacefully Feb. 25, 2022. He was born Aug. 25, 1940, in Indianapolis, to Norval and Bess Hamilton.

He retired after 42 years from Chevrolet Bus & Truck in Indianapolis where he was a machine repairman and a member of UAW Local 23. He also owned and operated Ham's Bait 'n' Tackle in Nineveh for many years.

He was avidly involved in hunting and fishing all his life and was an accomplished marksman in both pistol and rifle shooting, both recreational and competitive. Most people on the range would just stand back and watch with amazement at his skills. The Wyoming mountains were his favorite range for antelope, mule deer and prairie dogs. He was truly a shootist.

He is survived by his son, Thomas, of Ridgeland, S.C., daughter, Beth Dewey of Edinburgh, his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Timothy (Amy) of Martinsville and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sisters, Lillian and Bess.

As per his wishes, there was not a funeral service.

Varsity boys, eighth grade girls post big end-of-season wins

What a week to celebrate for Lancer athletics as the varsity boys kept the hardware at home by winning their own sectional and the eighth grade girls made short work of the Mid-Hoosier Conference, breezing through their season-ending tourney at Waldron.

The middle school girls played their final regular season games of the year on Tuesday evening March first. Taking on Hauser at home, the seventh grade girls held their own for most of the contest but succumbed on the end, 20-21, to the young Jets.

Kinzie Purvis scored 11, Mya Denton eight and Daisy Hernandez two.

In the eighth grade game, the Lancers more than doubled-up the Jets, winning 35-16.

Kenna Streeval led the way with 15 points, Lillie Goff had 10, Payton Morris six, and Bella Turner four.

Tuesday evening was also the night the Edinburgh varsity boys took control of this year's Edinburgh Sectional. Facing Trinity Lutheran, who had won some big games this year, the good guys led by just three at the end of the first half but then got rolling and outscored the Cougars by 16 in the final two periods to win, 57-38.

This victory moved them in to Friday's semi-final round against Crothersville.

Caleb Dewey led the Lancers with 17 points while Riley Palmeto had 14, Jarrett Turner 12, Landen Burton five, Travis Jones four, Braylon Bryant three, and Travis Vidal two.

Things were quiet until Thursday evening when the middle schoolers traveled to Waldron for their opening round game of the MHC tournament. In the first game, the seventh grade Lancers could get absolutely no offense to work and they fell to Waldron with Kinzie Purvis scoring their only four points on the evening.

In the second game, the Edinburgh eighth graders were good enough to put Waldron out of the tourney as they beat the hosts, 33-24, to move into Saturday morning's semi-finals.

Payton Morris was Edinburgh's high scorer with 14, Bella Turner chipped in 10, Kenna Streeval six, Gracie Barrett two, and Lillie Goff one.

Friday's semi-final round of the varsity sectional saw Edinburgh facing Crothersville with the winner moving on to Saturday's championship. As per usual, the Lancers built a lead in the opening half and them poured it on in the second, winning going away, 81-46.

Caleb Dewey led his team with 21 points in this one, Jarrett Turner added 15, Riley Palmeto 13, Braylon Bryant eight, Landen Burton eight, Travis Jones six, Connor Ramey four, Austin Brockman three, and Keegan Smith two.

Playing Morrystown on Saturday morning, the girls had little trouble with the Yellow Jackets, winning 33-16.

Kenna Streeval and Payton Morris each scored 10 points to lead the Lancers, Bella Turner put in seven, Lillie Goff four, and Gracie Barrett two.

The win propelled them into the Saturday afternoon championship game versus Southwestern.

In that one, the Lancer girls played very well throughout and came home with the MHC title as they pounded the Spartans, 52-15.

Payton Morris led her team with 18 points, Kenna Streeval poured in 14, Bella Turner 12, Lillie Goff four, Gracie Barrett two, and Addison Crawhorn two.

Saturday evening boys sectional championship saw another full house in Lancer Arena as all three nights of the tourney had very good crowds and true Indiana basketball atmosphere.

The lead didn't come quite as easy as it had in the previous two games but Edinburgh was able to open-up a margin and slowly build on it throughout the game, winning by 11, 49-38 over the West Washington Senators.

Caleb Dewey and Travis Jones shared high point honors with 16 points each, Riley Palmeto scored 12, Jarrett Turner three, and Landen Burton three. After this tourney win, they stand at 22-3 on the season.

Boys regional games

Edinburgh will now travel to Loogootee this coming Saturday for a re-match with North Davies, who handed the good guys one of their only three losses — an eight point loss on Feb. 19. In the regional's second game, Borden will take-on Springs Valley at noon with the morning's winners playing at 8 that evening.

Tickets for Saturday are available now through noon Friday. They can be purchased at the high school from Lancer athletic director David Walden and are also being sold at the school Administration Office during regular office hours of 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. They are $10 and are good for all three of Saturday's games.

The athletic department is offering a free fan bus for students. Info on the fan bus is available at the high school and contains a permission slip that must be signed by a parent and turned in before the student can get on the bus Saturday morning. This information sheet also contains the itinerary for the day. Any money for food and drinks must be brought with the student.

Along with the permission slip, each rider will be required to have already purchased a ticket to get into the games.

A LOOK BACK CELEBRATING 200 YEARS

The Bicentennial Committee held the 200th Anniversary Kick-Off event at the Pixy Theater on March 3. The event opened with a reading of the 1876 historic address originally given by J.H. Clarke during the country's centennial. Dinner and drinks in the Pixy ballroom followed the reading.

Dinner was Peppermill soup, salad, pork loin, roasted vegetables and potatoes. Dessert was prepared by Sherry Wilson, Melinda Schmidt and Gwen Billingsley.

This was a sold out event with 98 guests.

Columbus Philharmonic musicians Kathryn Tuttle on violin and Jose Martinez on cello entertained guests during the dinner.

Guests enjoy the dinner at the Edinburgh Pixy Theatre.

TAKING THE PLUNGE

Amy Macy-Schilling and Stephanie Pilcher took 29 students to the annual Special Olympics Polar Plunge on Friday at Eagle Creek Park in Indianapolis. The ECHS group raised approximately $3,400.

Tereasa Peterson

Tereasa "Terry" K. Peterson, 64, of Edinburgh, passed from this life at 8:08 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 26, 2022, at Homeview Health and Rehabilitation Center in Franklin under Paradiem Hospice Care.

Terry was born June 7, 1957, in Columbus, the daughter of Alan W. and Ethel L. Massey Peterson. She lived most of her life in Edinburgh.

Terry graduated from West Washington High School in 1976 and studied accounting at Ivy Tech Community College. Terry was a genuinely pleasant person who had a heart of gold. She would do anything for anyone. She worked for her father at White River Truck Repair for many years and would later own her own business, Yard Art. She would always keep a smile on her talented face no matter what life would throw at her. She was a lover of cats. Terry was so full of life, spirit and love for all and will be greatly missed by many. A special thank you to all of the nurses and staff at Homeview and Paradiem Hospice for the great care that she received.

Survivors include her stepmother, Bessie Peterson; sisters, Julie (Vince) Finley, both of Edinburgh, Dawn (Danny) Cupp of Hardinsburg; nieces, Ginger (Joshua) Music of Edinburgh, Amber (Chris) Simmons, also of Hardinsburg; great-nieces and nephews, Gemma, Jaxon and Jayson Music of Edinburgh.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Ethel Hammack, father, Alan "Pete" Peterson and nephew, Jason Cupp.

In keeping with the family's wishes, cremation took place and no service was planned. Inurnment was at Garland Brook Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to any Humane Society for her love of animals and the American Heart Association.

Online condolences and special memories may be shared at barkeweaverlick.com.

Arrangements were entrusted to Barks, Weaver & Glick Funeral Home.

NEWS ROUNDUP

DAILY JOURNAL AND REPUBLIC STAFF REPORTS

Two seek Nineveh Township trustee seat

The Nineveh Township trustee faces opposition for the first time since voters elected her to the position 12 years ago.

As the trustee of the township that covers Nineveh, Princes Lakes, part of Camp Atterbury and the eastern edge of Trafalgar, incumbent Janet Renner said she's proud of partnerships she's created with county agencies to help better the lives of her constituents.

If elected to a fourth term, her goal is to continue to maintain the township's cemeteries, which are recognized by the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, and continue to build partnerships with county agencies, Renner said.

Renner's opponent in the Republican primary is Jonetta Knight. Knight, who has lived in Nineveh Township for 18 years, said seeing the amount of need people went through during the pandemic inspired her to run for trustee.

Knight's goals, if elected, include creating a physical trustee's office that would be a space to keep items folks may need, such as diapers and food. She also wants to have assistants to keep the office open as many hours as possible, she said.

Two arrested after counterfeit bills passed at outlet store

Edinburgh police arrested two people after they were called to the Indiana Premium Outlet Mall about a counterfeit money report at Carter's clothing store.

Officers said the female suspect ran from a store and got inside the back of the Camry. Officers attempted to stop the vehicle at Executive Drive and Marketplace Drive, but the driver, later identified as William Cokley, age and address unavailable, and the passenger, Erica May, age and address unavailable, fled. The vehicle was stopped on I-65 near the 65-mile marker after the vehicle tried to back up the interstate the wrong way but was blocked by stopped semi traffic. Cokley and May were taken into custody without incident.

Officers were able to retrieve four counterfeit bills thrown out of the car during the vehicle pursuit as well as the two counterfeit bills recovered at Carter's.

Cokley and May were arrested and transported to the Bartholomew County Jail without incident on preliminary charges of counterfeiting, theft, resisting law enforcement in a vehicle, possession of marijuana and other driving charges, police said.

Tony Stewart lists his Columbus ranch for sale

Local residents are getting a glimpse of the West Youth Camp Road ranch of racing legend Tony Stewart through real estate images filed when his local home was put on the market for $30 million on Tuesday.

The Columbus native and three-time NASCAR Cup Series champion is selling his Hidden Hollow Ranch at 10285 W. Youth Camp Road through a Carmel real estate firm, and it is believed to be one of the most expensive real estate listings in the state.

Carmel-based agent Carrie Holle of the Carrie Holle Group has the exclusive listing on the property. The property's zoning allows uses such as a hunting preserve and a bed and breakfast. The main property is nearly 20,000 square feet with an indoor 8,700 gallon fresh water aquarium. The property also includes a guest home that is listed at 3,576 square feet. The property description says it offers six bedrooms, eight full baths, and three half baths.

Built in 2011, the 415-acre property also has a 9-acre stocked lake, an in-home gym, a game area, a bowling alley and a golf simulator.

"This is truly my dream home," said Stewart in a press release from the real estate agent. "We enjoyed every square inch of the land here. This became my place to get away and relax with my family and friends. The best part is that there is always something to do here. The land is great for hunting and fishing, off-roading, or just sitting on the porch and enjoying the stars at night. It is the perfect blend of entertainment and relaxation."

In 2017, Stewart began offering turkey and deer hunting on his property and also fishing trips, with the opportunity to stay overnight in the main house as part of the experience.

In November 2021, Stewart married NHRA drag racer Leah Pruitt. His mother, Pam Boas, said Stewart had not yet told her or his father why he was selling.

"I told him I'm going to have to find out another place to live out my assisted living," Boas joked. "It's a beautiful property, and we will miss being able to go there. But I totally understand. It's something he had to do to do what's best for he and Leah."

"They're just traveling from place to place wherever they need to be and where their commitments are. I just know that they're both on the road a lot, and he isn't able to enjoy that as much as he wants to. It's a decision they had to make together."
